CHILD STARTS FURNACE.

LEBANON, PA., Jan. 20.—Fire was lighted this afternoon in Stack No. 2, of the Bird Coleman Furnaces, at Cornwall. The torch was applied by Elizabeth Caffes, the 7-year-old daughter of Thomas H. Caffes, solicitor of the Lackawanna Iron and Steel Company.

The furnace, which has been idle four years, will give employment to several hundred hands. The company has a five years' lease of the plant, and will shortly start the remaining furnace, as well as the stack of the Colebrook plant, at West Lebanon.

HIGH HATS.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 20.—By a vote of 16 to 7 the House of Delegates last night adopted the Anti-High Hat ordinance, and all that now remains to make it a law is its passage by the City Council.

A spirited fight was made against the measure, and though its adoption was effected by the decisive vote mentioned, the delegates who are opposed to the bill say it will not stand a legal test. It imposes a fine on women who refuse to remove high hats in the theatres.

BRYAN A WITNESS.

JACKSONVILLE, Ill., Jan. 20.—The principal feature in the Draper murder trial yesterday morning was the introduction of William Jennings Bryan to testify to Draper's good record while the two were in the same office, from 1882 to 1887.

Mr. Bryan said the defendant was a good man, rather irritable in temper. The remaining of the forenoon was devoted to expert insanity testimony.

SILVER DOLLARS IN RUINS.

STAMFORD, Conn., Jan. 20.—A fire broke out yesterday, and as a result half the population is delving in the ruins and ashes of what used to be "Silver Dollar" Lee's saloon looking for the silver dollars that were inlaid in the floor. Lee put 40,000 silver dollars in his place, and they glistened from the walls and the ceiling and the floor was laid thick with them.

THE WEATHER.

As recorded at the central office of the New Jersey Weather Service, State Experiment Station, this city.

DANCE AT THE GOLF CLUB

SOCIETY WAS OUT LAST EVENING.

A VERY DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR

Those Who Attended the Dance—The Season's Social Success.

Many beautiful faces and charming gowns were seen at the second annual ball of the New Brunswick Golf Club, which was held in Columbia Hall, last night. It was a merry throng of dancers which enjoyed the occasion in a delightful manner.

The affair was attended by over one hundred guests from the leading circles of local and out-of-town society who were received by Mrs. J. B. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. W. S. Myers, Mrs. W. P. Voorhees, Mrs. D. D. Williamson and Mrs. N. Williamson.

The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion. On the balcony at the entrance were a number of golf emblems and on the platform amid the potted plants and screens were arranged conversation chairs and tete-a-tetes.

There were any number of pretty gowns worn by the guests. Among them was a Worth gown worn by a young lady, who was recently a bride in this city.

During the evening congratulations were extended by his many friends to Neilson T. Parker, whose engagement to Miss Goodwin, has just been announced.

One of the features of the evening was the Virginia reel, which created no little merriment among the guests. It was a novelty to several of those present and this of course added to the amusement of the onlookers.

Supper was served at 11.30 o'clock by Caterer Clark, of New York, on the second floor of the hall. The tables were handsomely decorated. The menu enjoyed was as follows:

Bouillon en Tasses
Pates aux Huitres
Croquettes de Volaille
Salade de Volaille Salade de Homard
Rillettes
Glaces de Fantaisies Gateaux Assorties
Limonade Cafe (Demi tasse.)

The music was furnished by Professor Garland, who provided an orchestra of five pieces. The committee in charge were Messrs. J. P. Street, A. Atkinson, C. B. Ludlow, W. S. Myers, F. W. Parker and N. T. Parker.

Those present were:

Robert Adrain and wife, Robert A. Cook and wife, Dr. H. G. Cook and wife, Dr. F. M. Donohue and wife, John E. Elmendorf and wife, Dr. Charles E. Hart and wife, William R. Hill and wife, Mansfield Hillhouse and wife, F. L. Hindle and wife, J. W. Johnson and wife, R. W. Johnson and wife, J. Bayard Kirkpatrick and wife, Professor W. S. Meyers and wife, John S. Voorhees and wife, Willard P. Voorhees and wife, Mayor Williamson and wife, Douwe D. Williamson and wife, John Waldron and wife, C. R. Moran and wife, A. V. Schenck and wife, Warren R. Schenck and wife, J. S. Clark and wife, E. R. Payson and wife.

Misses Fischer, Maud Goodwin, Kirkpatrick, Messinger, Neilson, Warren, Williamson, Esther Nicholas, Ogilby, Adelaide Parker, Phillips, Bessie Runyon, Schenck, Smith, Strong, Atkinson, Anable, Helen Buttler, Anna Bishop, Mrs. S. Covas, Misses Alice and Kate Carpender, Clark, Cowenhoven, Adaline Cortelyou, Cook, Deshler.

Miss Davies, Dayton, O.; Miss Dixon, Jersey City; Miss Shaw, Staten Island; Miss Beall, Baltimore; Miss Wickes, Washington; Miss Simmons, New York; Miss Goodwin, Vancouver; Miss Livingston, New York; Miss Nicholas, Baltimore.

Messrs. Coe, Englewood; Judson, Wilson and Simmons, New York; Walser, Staten Island; Tiedeman, Staten Island.

MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING.

Jury Asked to Convict a Man of Stealing a Dry Goods Box.

The first criminal case tried this morning was that of John Urbansky, who is charged with stealing a dry goods box valued at 75 cents from Henry Wilsner, a Perth Amboy dry goods dealer. Several witnesses were called on each side and as much care was taken by counsel in drawing a jury as if it were a serious crime and not such a trivial offense.

The trial will cost the county $24 for jurymen alone, without witness fees.

He was found not guilty by the jury.

Several change of pleas were taken. Godiniga Margurek pleaded guilty to a charge of atrocious assault and battery. She slapped a woman in the face and it cost her $20, the amount of fine which was imposed by Judge Strong.

Charles Morris, upon an allegation charging him with larceny, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail without costs. He was sent out by his sister with $10 to buy liquor. Morris bought the liquor and "blowed" in the change.

LADIES' SOCIAL.

Will be Given by the Elks in Their Lodge Room Tonight.

One of the very pleasant affairs, that of a ladies' social, which is annually given by the Elks, will be held in the lodge room tonight. This is an occasion which is one of special interest to the members of the lodge and their wives and friends.

The programme which has been provided for this evening's entertainment is of an excellent character and will delight all who attend.

Money in your pocket. That's what our January Clearing sale means. We are selling our stock of clothing at 20 per cent. less than our usual low prices. These suits, overcoats, and trousers must go to make room for the Handsome Garments we are manufacturing for Spring Trade.

Our windows tell part of the price story but you'll be better pleased by seeing goods in the store.

SPECIAL—A lot of odd sizes in suits, the $8 $10 and $12 kind, if your size is here, for $5.

Pierson—Dey.

The wedding of Miss Magdalene Pierson, daughter of E. C. Pierson, of Rhode Hall, to William P. Dey, of Newark, took place at the residence of the bride's parents, on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Taylor, of Cranbury, performed the ceremony in the presence of about 30 guests, who were members of the immediate families.

After the wedding a reception was held and a fine collation was served. The bride received many handsome presents. They will reside in Newark. The bridegroom was formerly connected with the Prudential Life Insurance Company in this city.

Fainted at Golf Club Dance.

Miss Wickes, of Washington, fell to the floor in a faint at the dance of the Golf Club in Columbia Hall last night. While guests were enjoying the supper dance Miss Wickes, who was dancing in the centre of the hall, became dazed and fell. She was quickly assisted to her feet and aided in getting out of the room. The affair created a little flurry of excitement for a time among her friends, but this quickly subsided when it was found that she was not injured. She appeared on the dance floor later in the evening.

Cotillion This Evening.

A cotilllon, to be followed by intormal dancing, will take place in Columbia Hall this evening. The affair has been arranged by local young people through a committee composed of Arthur H. Boyd, C. Herbert Miller, Charles E. Tindell, George Deshler and J. H. Suydam. Supper will be served by Wyckoff, while the music for dancing will be furnished by an orchestra supplied by A. C. Garland. It is expected that there will be nearly two hundred guest present.

PRESIDENT'S BROTHER-IN-LAW

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 20.—The Ohio Supreme Court has decided that George D. Saxton, a brother of Mrs. William McKinley, shall pay Sample C. George $30,000 for alienating the affections of Mrs. George. She procured a divorce in Dakota, and it is charged that Saxton paid the expenses. He owns the Saxton block in Canton, Ohio.

S. SCHEUER & SONS, THE LEADING CASH GROCERS and BUTCHERS

PALMER IS PRESIDENT

OF THE CONSOLIDATED FRUIT JAR COMPANY.

R. W. BOOTH IS SUPERINTENDENT

Temporary Appointments—Yesterday's Very Lively Meeting.

Probably the liveliest aggregation of business men and capitalists that have gathered in New York city, in many days, was that which met yesterday in the New York office of the Consolidated Fruit Jar Company, at 49 Warren street. The TIMES told yesterday of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the corporation and its results, and it was this meeting which brought the moneyed men together.

The meeting was undoubtedly the largest ever held by the company, and there were few shares of stock that were not represented. Besides the stockholders, however, there were many lawyers in attendance who looked after the interests of the two factions in the company, known as the New Brunswick crowd and the New York crowd. Among the lawyers for the former stockholders were Howard MacSherry, Willard P. Voorhees, John S. Voorhees and T. B. Boorsem. There were many New York lawyers also representing the other stockholders.

There were 4,301 shares noted in all of which number 2,300 were voted by the local crowd and 2,001 by the New York crowd. The full list of directors includes Lewis T. Howell, Henry R. Baldwin, Henry McMurtry, Oliver M. Palmer, P. Hampton Wyckoff, Ralph W. Booth and W. G. Low, of New York. It did not take the new board of directors a long time to effect a temporary organization and before the meeting adjourned they had elected temporary officers.

It is probable that these officers will be made permanent. They are President, O. M. Palmer; superintendent, Ralph W. Booth; secretary, A. L. Fisher and treasurer, George Smith, of New York city.

The new directors and officers contemplate a complete overhauling of the big factory here in the hope that it may return to the prosperity that it enjoyed of old.

It is not possible at this time to state what these changes may be, but in order that the new management may not be hampered in these endeavors, a resolu was adopted at the meeting of directors yesterday afternoon, empowering the board of trustees to expend all necessary money to improve the plant. Superintendent Booth took charge of the factory this morning.

LAID TO REST.

Funeral Services of the Late Thomas Marsh.

All that was mortal of the late Thomas Marsh, the noted restaurateur, was laid to rest on Wednesday afternoon, after an impressive funeral service held in the chapel of the First Reformed Church. The deceased had long been a member of this church. The chapel was filled with the friends of the deceased, among whom were many well known citizens.

Rev. P. T. Pockman, the pastor of the church, conducted the services, reading from the Scriptures and speaking of the life of Mr. Marsh, whom he regarded as one of the best of men. He was always kind, faithful and hopeful, sincere and earnest in all of his relations with his fellow men. Rev. J. W. Cooper, a former pastor of Mt. Zion Church, and Presiding Elder Sturges also took part in the services. The pall bearers were Robert Van Nostrand, Josiah Henson, Wesley W. Taylor, and George W. Thompson. During the service one of Mr. Marsh's favorite hymns was sung.

The body was interred in a cemetery on Remsen avenue, which Mr. Marsh had managed years ago.

Undertaker W. H. Quackenboss had charge of the funeral.

Writ of Error Taken.

The case of William P. Johnson against the Devoe snuff mills, which was non-suited in the Circuit Court this term, has been taken up to the Court of Errors and Appeals on a writ of error by Robert Adrain, attorney for Mr. Johnson. Mr. Johnson sued to recover damages for the injury of a hand in a snuff mill.

State Merchants' Association.

President P. S. Van Anglen, Secretary Henry F. Gray and Valentine Schmidt, of the local Retail Merchants' Protective Association went to Newark today to attend the annual meeting of the state association.

A Lady Customer Said:

"I took a severe cold last winter, resulting in bronchitis, and although I tried a number of remedies, it clung to me all summer. The least exposure, especially at night, brought on the most distressing symptoms. Now I am using Skillman's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites and it is helping me wonderfully. I don't want to get my picture in the papers, but I'll take another bottle, please."

MORE BOROUGH NEWS.

Milltown People Who Endorse the Present System.

Tomorrow night the people of Highland Park will hold a public meeting at which in all probability some decided action will be taken in regard to forming themselves into a borough government. The people of Milltown became a borough commission in 1889, and were more recently organized under the latest borough act, so that the taxpayers of that suburb of New Brunswick, as it might be termed, have had ample opportunity to see the advantages and disadvantages of borough government. Those opposed to the borough have given expression, through the local newspapers, to their feeling upon the matter, and in order that the citizens of Highland Park might have the benefit of both sides of the borough question a TIMES reporter interviewed a number of property owners yesterday who favored borough government.

A thorough inspection of the property on the various streets within the borough was made yesterday, and that Milltown has derived some benefits from such a government is apparent from the condition in which the real estate is. It was noticeable, however, that the property of those opposing borough government had not an up-to-date appearance.

That this state of affairs existed was evident from a fair comparison of the properties. The land of Dennis Vanderbilt, who has expressed himself against the borough, is situated on the extreme limits of the borough. In fact part upon which he pays no borough taxes but includes in his claim of having the largest number of lineal feet frontage, is beyond the borough limits in North Brunswick township. It is understood that the law permits a borough to tax a resident for all his land, even though part of it extends into the township, and this will be enforced with regard to Mr. Vanderbilt this year.

Across the way is the property of John Kuhlthau who favors borough government and pays taxes upon an assessment of $125 an acre while Mr. Vanderbilt pays an assessment rate of $65 an acre. The sidewalks in front of Mr. Kuhlthau's property are well kept and the fences in good condition while the path in front of Mr. Vanderbilt's property is full of weeds and in some places there are no fences. Mrs. Boorsem's fences are also in bad condition.

Another comparison could be made on Riva avenue, on one side of which is the land of Mrs. Mary A. Evans and opposite to it the land of William Ochs, who also is an opponent to the borough. The fence along the former Notice to Investors.

The advertiser desires to borrow, in small or large amounts, as is convenient to the lender, moneys, for which demand notes bearing 5 per cent. interest will be given.

Besides this, regular books will be kept showing from whom funds are received and how they are used. These books will be open for the examination of the lenders at all proper business hours. Information will be given to them as they request it regarding investments and the advertiser's reasons for making them.

The last clause, it is thought, will prove of greater advantage to those making use of this plan than the matter of interest.
