

NEW BRUNSWICK TIMES

LAST EDITION

Number 33. NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., THURSDAY AFTERNOON, FEBRUARY 9, 1911. TEN PAGES. TWO CENTS.

PLUNGE IN CHOP SUEY COST $700

Chin Guey, the Enterprising Chinaman, Wasn't Able to Fasten Habit on Local People, Goes Back to Laundry.

Chin Guey, who undertook a few months ago to teach New Brunswick how to like chop suey, confessed today that the experiment had cost him $700 and that he had not succeeded in the undertaking. He has closed up his Chinese restaurant and on Saturday will go back to his first love, the laundry business, having taken the little place on Schureman street, facing Monument Square, formerly occupied by a physician.

MIS-SPELLED NAME ON TOMBSTONE LEADS TO SUIT

The mis-spelling of a word on a tombstone resulted in a suit in the District Court this morning between former Mayor Stafford Raypley, of Milltown, and Mrs. Augusta Marie Bloss, of Spotswood, to recover $100 due on a tombstone erected in the cemetery at Spotswood. The stone cost $175 and he had received $75. Lawyer John A. Conn appeared for the plaintiff and Lawyer Freeman Woodbridge for the defendant.

SHERIFF SELLS TWO PERTH AMBOY PLACES

Sheriff Quackenbush conducted two public sales at his office yesterday, as follows: Lands and premises in Perth Amboy in chancery between the Metropolitan Building and Loan Association, complainant, and Frederick S. Jensen, and others defendants, was sold to the complainant for $500. The decree and costs amounted to $656.23.

MAY INDICT WEISS TOMORROW

The Grand Jury tomorrow will hear the charge of embezzlement against Morris Weiss, of South River. Weiss is charged with being from $80 to $1,000 short in his accounts with Martin Herrmann and the Singer Sewing Machine Company and from various people whom he had received money from. Weiss was arrested in New York on January 21 and is now being held in the Tombs. New York will hold him for one month awaiting requisition papers. Before asking for such papers, the prosecutor desired to have an indictment to present to Governor Wilson showing that the man is wanted in this county.

SOME OF THE THINGS BOARD OF TRADE HAS DONE FOR THIS CITY

Four New Industries Employing 250 Men Brought Here—Merchants Protected and Other Improvements Urged.

That the Board of Trade has accomplished a great deal toward the advancement of this city's interests and the improvement of civic conditions during its comparatively brief career, will be acknowledged by a large number of persons who would also find it extremely difficult to cite the many particular cases where progress has been made, either entirely or largely through the board's efforts.

REV. AND MRS. STOUT GIVE RECEPTION

Rev. and Mrs. Royal A. Stout, gave a reception last night to the members of the Netherwood Reformed church at the parsonage, a number of friends being present from this city. Six young ladies assisted the hosts in receiving. Refreshments were served and a pleasant time enjoyed. Mrs. and Miss Mattell, of Netherwood, rendered a duet, and Miss Lou Wood a piano solo. James Veneklauff, of the local Seminary, gave a vocal solo and later sang a duet with Mr. Dykema, of the Seminary. Mr. Dykema also gave a recitation and Miss Maude Berry, of Netherwood sang.

N. B. YACHT CLUB IS INCORPORATED

The New Brunswick Yacht Club has filed articles of incorporation to-day. The object of the club is to encourage and practice boating. The office of the club is at 43 Peterson street. The trustees are William Deigel, Myron A. Polard, of this city, and Nicholas F. Doyle, of Highland Park. The yacht club was formed several years ago. It was first known as the Elm Yacht Club. It has a membership of over fifty.

BAKERIES TO BE INSPECTED BY THE BOARD OF HEALTH

Health Officer Cronk Reports That Three Bakeries Which He Had Visited Were Found To Be in Bad Condition.

In the near future the bakeries of the city are to be inspected by the Board of Health. This has never been done before by the board. At the meeting of this body last night Health Officer Cronk stated that three bakeries of the town had been inspected by him and four by the deputy inspector. The conditions found were bad. The goods were not put out in a sanitary manner. He said that an inspection of all bakeries will be made and a report submitted at a meeting.

TOWNSHIP MUST SUPPORT THE BABY

Probation Officer MacWilliams, who has been looking up the reported case of the abandonment of a baby at Lindeneau, today said that Mrs. Bartow, who has the child, will be advised to apply to the township for the support and then the overseer of the poor can bring the matter to the attention of Judge Lyon and he can commit the child to one of the children's institutions.

COURT COMES TO AID OF THE LANDLORDS

It was "moving day" in the District Court this morning, Judge Hicks giving three decisions in favor of plaintiffs in landlord and tenant cases.

TRUST CO. DIRECTORS TO ACT ON NEW BANK

The directors of the New Brunswick Trust Company will soon be called upon to consider a proposition of buying the Union Club property on George street, next door to their bank building, and to consider the erection of a model bank building on the two lots.

NEWARK ARCANUM MEN COMING HERE

Adephic Council men are anticipating a big time at their meeting on February 24 when Corinthian Council, No. 644, of Newark will bring their famous Uniformed Degree team here and show how initiatory work should be performed. It is expected that several candidates will be put through that night. Four councils will participate in the event.

ELECT CONSISTORY MEMBERS

At a special meeting of the congregation of the First Reformed church held last night, the following were elected as new members of the church consistory.

HINGHER'S SPECIALS FOR FEBRUARY.

Big Line Antique Mahogany Furniture at Special Prices. Among the lot is a very old genuine antique mahogany sideboard, also tables, mirrors, beds, sofas, card tables, bureaus, chests, secretary, china closets, corner cabinet, dining room tables, dressers, chairs, etc.; grandfather's clock, a beauty.

JUSTICE VOORHEES SUSTAINED

Trenton, Feb. 9.—(Special).—Justice Garrison, in the Supreme Court to-day filed an opinion refusing a writ of mandamus to former Senator Thomas Mathis, of Ocean county. Mathis had sought to compel Justice Voorhees to issue a certificate of election to him as Senator of Ocean county, and unseated Senator George Low, a Democrat.

TOWNSHIP MUST SUPPORT THE BABY

Probation Officer MacWilliams, who has been looking up the reported case of the abandonment of a baby at Lindeneau, today said that Mrs. Bartow, who has the child, will be advised to apply to the township for the support and then the overseer of the poor can bring the matter to the attention of Judge Lyon and he can commit the child to one of the children's institutions.

COURT COMES TO AID OF THE LANDLORDS

It was "moving day" in the District Court this morning, Judge Hicks giving three decisions in favor of plaintiffs in landlord and tenant cases.

TRUST CO. DIRECTORS TO ACT ON NEW BANK

The directors of the New Brunswick Trust Company will soon be called upon to consider a proposition of buying the Union Club property on George street, next door to their bank building, and to consider the erection of a model bank building on the two lots.

NEWARK ARCANUM MEN COMING HERE

Adephic Council men are anticipating a big time at their meeting on February 24 when Corinthian Council, No. 644, of Newark will bring their famous Uniformed Degree team here and show how initiatory work should be performed. It is expected that several candidates will be put through that night. Four councils will participate in the event.

ELECT CONSISTORY MEMBERS

At a special meeting of the congregation of the First Reformed church held last night, the following were elected as new members of the church consistory.

HINGHER'S SPECIALS FOR FEBRUARY.

Big Line Antique Mahogany Furniture at Special Prices. Among the lot is a very old genuine antique mahogany sideboard, also tables, mirrors, beds, sofas, card tables, bureaus, chests, secretary, china closets, corner cabinet, dining room tables, dressers, chairs, etc.; grandfather's clock, a beauty.

HINGHER'S SPECIALS FOR FEBRUARY.

Big Line Antique Mahogany Furniture at Special Prices. Among the lot is a very old genuine antique mahogany sideboard, also tables, mirrors, beds, sofas, card tables, bureaus, chests, secretary, china closets, corner cabinet, dining room tables, dressers, chairs, etc.; grandfather's clock, a beauty.

BOARD OF TRADE HAS NEARLY 300 ACTIVE MEMBERS

Six More Were Elected Last Night—Chairmen Named for Various Committees—Other Business Was Disposed of.

Six more applicants were elected to membership in the Board of Trade last night, bringing the total membership now almost up to the 300 mark. President George A. Viehmann called the meeting to order shortly after eight o'clock, there being a goodly attendance on hand despite the stormy weather. The president announced his appointment of committee chairmen, as follows: Municipal Affairs—Charles Deshier. New Industries—Henry G. Parker. Membership—Alfred S. March. Fire Hazards—George A. Viehmann. Trade and Transportation—W. R. Reed.

CONFERENCE ON FEB. 20

Communications were received from the Boards of Trade of Newark, Passaic and Jersey City, accepting invitations to have delegates attend the conference to be held by the local board in this city on February 20, to discuss proposed and pending public utilities bills.

COMMISSION GOVERNMENT

Chairman Deshier, of the committee on municipal affairs, reported great progress in the commission government crusade. He spoke of the tentative bill, prepared by the local board which was approved by the other civic organizations of the state at the Newark conference. A meeting of the committee to whom it was referred will be held on Saturday to formulate a bill for presentation to the Legislature.

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES

This committee also reported that they are endeavoring to get copies of the measures introduced in the legislature of various other states relative to insuring the use of correct weights and measures.

BETTER TRAIN SERVICE

The committee on Trade and Transportation reported, through W. R. Reed, that it is planning and making strenuous efforts to secure better passenger and freight service from the Pennsylvania Railroad. They are also endeavoring to secure better express service. Mr. Reed stated that the committee did not feel at all satisfied with the present service from these corporations and felt that the city was entitled to better accommodations.

NEW INDUSTRY FOR MILLTOWN

The borough of Milltown has another new industry, the Gravity Condenser Company, located at Ryder's Lane, with Gerhard L. Miller as agent. The company has been formed for the purpose of building and constructing steam, gas and other condensers. The authorized capital stock is $100,000, divided into 100 shares. The company begins business with $2,000.

PAID $2 TO MOVE CHICKENS FROM THE POLICE STATION

When the bill of Henry Frisch, one of the deputy inspectors of the Board of Health came up for payment at a meeting of that body last night it contained a charge which is not often found on the bills of the deputies. It read: "November 7, to moving seven chickens from police headquarters, $2." Health Officer Dr. Irving Cronk stated that the bill was correct with the exception of this item which he did not know anything about. The entire bill amounted to $18 and was ordered paid.

EDUCATORS FAVOR SCHOOL THESPIANS

The members of the Board of Education have done the graceful thing for the members of the Clio Literary Society of the High school. Something ago the society decided to give a play in Graham's hall on Friday evening, Feb. 10, which is tomorrow night. Then along came the new Board of Education and changed its meeting night so that it fell on that identical night.

DR. AUSTIN SCOTT TO PRESIDE AT THE LINCOLN BANQUET

Dr. Austin Scott, former president of Rutgers College, who presided over the first annual banquet of the Board of Trade last year, will again act as toastmaster at the second annual banquet at the Mansion House next Monday night. Dr. Scott is an eloquent speaker and is possessed of a ready wit and aptitude that combine to make him an exceptionally entertaining speaker.

SENATOR FRELINGHUYSEN, REV. J. L. LEVY, OF PITTSBURG, AND HON. C. F. MOORE, OF NEW YORK TO BE SPEAKERS AT ANNUAL BOARD OF TRADE AFFAIR.

The next speaker will be Rev. J. Leonard Levy, of Pittsburg, who also enjoys a wide reputation as an orator. His toast will be "Lincoln's Message to Our Day," and will be the principal address. Hon. Judge Charles Forest Moore, of New York City, will be the third speaker of the evening, his address being of a humorous nature, on the toast, "Dollars and Sense."

JOHNSON'S SPECIAL MENTION

New Orleans Molasses, new crop of the real old-fashioned light sugary New Orleans molasses. This molasses has a very fine flavor. It is the height of folly to spend your good money for poor molasses when Johnson offers the best on the market at fifteen cents a quart.

HOTEL ALBANY DINNERS

From 12 to 2, are worth a trial. A la carte all the time. Private dining room. 118-1m.

TOO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION

FOR SALE—Five passenger automobile "Interstate" model 1910. Splendid condition. Apply 47 Bayard St., Phone No. 411. 19-1f

SAVE THIS COUPON. It Is Worth Money.

Thirty consecutive Coupons and $3.25 in cash entitle bearer to one 45-piece Gold and Blue Dinner Set. Coupon No. 97.

ROSEN CAN'T SELL HIS LICENSE

Police Heard That He Sold Out to Mike Decandia and John Vacca, and Close Place and Complain Against the Two.

At the meeting of Common Council on Monday night Morris Rosen asked to have his license for a saloon at Remsen avenue and Handy street, transferred to John Vacca. The application went to the license committee and has not been acted upon as yet.

CITY LODGING HOUSES FOUND TO BE UNHEALTHY

The Board of Health is getting after the city lodging houses on Burnet street. At the meeting of that body last night Dr. E. Irving Cronk, the health officer, made a report of an investigation he had made of these houses several days ago. He stated that many of them were overcrowded and there was also lack of air space in the buildings. They are not in a sanitary condition, but could hardly be condemned by the board. At 195 Burnet street the outhouses were in a bad condition, and they needed almost immediate attention.

ALDERMEN TO MEET

The Highland Park Borough Council will hold its regular monthly meeting in the hose house tonight when several important measures will be acted upon. The annual budget will be approved tonight, in all probability, and it is also expected that some action will be taken upon the proposed sewage disposal plant. The Finance Committee has been engaged in fixing the various appropriations for the year.

CHARITY WHIST PARTY

The charity whist party held yesterday afternoon by the ladies of the Ausdie Elmch Temple was largely attended. It was arranged by Mrs. David Posner and Mrs. M. Wallach. The prize was captured by Mrs. M. Levine. It was a large picture.

SEIFFERT BROS.

First class stationery, diaries and year books. Order your paper now. Real Estate News. If you have a house or lot to sell call and see us. We will sell it for you. If you want a bargain in real estate look over our lists before buying. PARKER & WATSON.

KLEIN'S RARITAN HOUSE.

Guinness's Stout on Draught at 46 National Bank Building. Paul F. Williams Agent of Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co., also agent and dealer in farm lands Office in National Bank Building, 121f