MAY RULE HIBBS OUT OF COURT

Attack on License Renewal Goes into Question of Jurisdiction—Briefs to Be Filed—The Testimony.

Addressing themselves to an endeavor to show that Judge Daly lacks jurisdiction in the petition of William A. Hibbs for renewal of his inn and tavern license at Plainsboro, Cranbury township, attorneys Edward W. Hicks and John V. B. Wicoff produced testimony to the effect that four of the seventeen men who signed Mr. Hibbs' application are not freeholders and that three of the remaining signers had affixed their names to the application 31 days before the opening day of the present court term—whereas the law requires that all license applications must be signed by at least twelve reputable freeholders, and signers must be secured within 30 days of the opening day of the term of court at which the application is to be presented.

Those of Mr. Hibbs' signers who were established as not being freeholders were Joseph Cohen, James M. Pullen, J. Howard Bergen and Samuel Koerner, and a doubt was also raised as to whether A. L. Snedeker, another of the signers to the Hibbs application, was an effective signer. In Mr. Snedeker's

Latest News in the World's War at Breakfast Time.

Tomorrow morning what the hours have brought forth in the World's War, which the United States has entered on behalf of humanity, will be before you by breakfast time in the Sunday Times.

Preparations are being made by this nation to engage in this conflict on a wide scale. The plans that are being put into effect involve the expenditure of billions. The appropriation of a million dollars is a mere song as compared with some of the stupendous figures in the bills now before Congress.

New Brunswick is vitally interested in the war plans because some of its soldier boys are on duty. The Sunday Times will be filled with war news tomorrow. There will be a story about Company H, now on duty in Camden, and numerous other features, some of which will be illustrated.

The Sunday Times has an up-to-the-minute Telegraph Service, and every important happening on and off the battlefield in Europe and America will be covered very completely.

The morning's news will be supplemented by the following special features of real significance:

A Hundred Mile Drive for autoists which includes a trip along the ocean boulevard, has been furnished by Louis A. Voorhees, of this city, former secretary of the N. J. Auto Association. New motor laws and court decisions in automobile suits will also be found on the Automobile Page.

Housewives Will Be Interested in the illustrated story concerning the way Mrs. Frank A. Patison has fitted out her kitchen with novel appliances so as to make housework easier.

School Publications have been commented upon and the students at the various schools in this vicinity will be anxious to read the comment of the Times man upon these various magazines. A picture of the Argo Board at the Rutgers Preparatory School accompanies this article.

$10,000 will be a sufficient sum to carry out the plans of the late Watson Whittlesey for a magnificent park in Livingston Manor. The Times will have a picture of the park as proposed.

The New $10,000 Organ at Kirkpatrick Chapel has also been written up for this issue, and the story will be accompanied by pictures of the two men who selected it.

A Bound Brook Dentist spends his spare time studying and making pictures of nature. This story tells of some of the excellent snapshots he has taken of birds, snakes, etc. He has some wonderful pictures.

Historic Spots in New Brunswick is a new feature. The old Agnew house is the subject of the first story. It has to do with Revolutionary days, and of a skirmish between the British and Americans on what is now known as Burnet street.

Back Yard Thrift—Vegetable-growing in vacant lots and back yard areas will be a general occupation this season. The Home Garden Page is filled with suggestions for the home gardener.

The Vested Choir of the Suddam Street Reformed Church posed for the Times photographer the other day. Their many friends will be eager to see this picture.

Contributed Editorial—This is another new feature, this week's writer commenting upon the question of giving school children credit for out-of-school activities. Every parent will be interested in this.

Other Illustrated Stories include view of the filtration plant, which is almost completed; women at work behind the plow on the farm; stars in the week's bills at the local playhouses; Uncle Sam's fighting machines.

BOLIVIA BREAKS OFF RELATIONS WITH GERMANY

BUENOS AIRES, April 14.—Anti-German manifestations which followed the official announcement of the sinking of the Argentine ship Monte Protegido were intensified to-day by the news that Bolivia has broken off diplomatic relations with Germany.

The government is investigating a report carried in press despatches, that the ship was shelled by a U-boat before being sunk in European waters.

In the meantime the police and military authorities are preserving order here.

If the government's hand is forced by popular feeling it is confidently expected that Chile will reverse her neutrality stand.

KAMPF HAS VIGOROUS BACKING

New Market Hotel Man Is Supported by Prominent Men in Fight for Renewal of License—Dual Signing by License Supporters Is Shown.

Letters filed with the county yesterday in support of the application of Rudolph P. Kampf for renewal of his inn and tavern license at New Market, Pleasantway township, were from many prominent citizens of the township as well as from other sections of the county and led Judge Daly to remark that if the applicant had conducted his place in the way indicated by these letters, it would be a loss to the license system in Middlesex should Mr. Kampf lose his license through a technical defect in his application. Thomas H. Hagerty is counsel for the applicant.

Among those supporting Mr. Kampf in letters to the Court were George A. Viehman, Joseph E. Kelly and Charles E. Kelly, Anthony J. Gebhardt, Francis J. Blatz, William A. Coddington, William Osborn and Alex L. Herrick, besides the following officials of the township: John Geary, Jeremiah T. Ten Eyck, F. O. Nelson, Everett Marshall, Harry J. Piddington, Clarence M.

FLOWER SHOW MAKES GEORGE ST. A RIOT OF BEAUTY

New Brunswick Gains Distinction of Being First City to Present Novel Exhibition of Flowers in Store Windows—Representative Exhibit Draws Crowds.

Even though New Brunswick knew there was to be a flower show in the windows of George street's stores, few, if any, realized the full meaning of it until they saw the beautiful and elaborate displays that were shown at the opening yesterday afternoon, and it did not take a very great knowledge of horticulture to see that these exhibits represent some fine, and in many cases rare, specimens of the florist's skill and care, while the artistic grouping of the plants and flowers develops an effect that is not only pleasing, but individual, in every instance.

Yesterday afternoon crowds of people paused before each exhibit with exclamations of wonder and pleasure at the lovely blooms and graceful ferns and palms that seemed to bring the springtime so much nearer and to breathe the message that only flowers and growing plants can give to the heart that holds a love for all things beautiful, whether it beats beneath the costly broadcloth of the "grande dame" or the ragged coat of the street urchin.

So much for the sentiment of the flower show, but there is an educational side to it, too, for you will notice that on each display appears a small tag bearing the name of each variety of flower and plant exhibited; to a good many people a

DICTAGRAPH CASE AGAINST EXCISE MEMBERS MONDAY

Jas. A. Mullen and Adolph C. Koyen, of Perth Amboy, Are Defendants—Other Trials for Next Week.

One of the most important trials that is likely to occur during the term of Prosecutor Stricker is scheduled for Monday, next before Judge Daly in the county court, when the Prosecutor will move a joint indictment against James A. Mullen and Adolph C. Koyen, members of the Board of Excise Commissioners in Perth Amboy.

Mullen and Koyen are charged with malfeasance in office and their arrest was brought about as a result of a denuncatory effort to end a number of unsavory rumors regarding the conduct of excise matters in the "down river" city. At the same time that these defendants were presented by the Grand Jury, an indictment charging conspiracy was returned in which Louis Spitzer, an alleged go-between, was named as a defendant. The Spitzer indictment was subsequently quashed by the Supreme Court.

Some of the most important evidence to be presented on Monday was gathered with the aid of a dictagraph operated by County Detective Feltner and Court Stenographer George D. Ziegler, the latter taking notes of an alleged conversation between Spitzer and Stephen Miklos regarding money said to have been demanded by Mullen and Koyen for favorable action on a petition from Miklos for a bottling license in connection with his saloon in Perth Amboy.

Monday's trial will be before a struck jury and the defendants will be represented by Attorney Thomas Brown, of Perth Amboy.

Other Trial Dates. The Prosecutor has arranged the following calendar of trials for next week in addition to the above: Tuesday—Peter Sherman, desertion and assault and battery. Counsel, H. Baras. Charles Smith, atrocious assault and battery and carrying concealed weapons. Counsel, J. M. Preger. Wednesday—Edward Mozolensky, attempted carnal abuse. Counsel, J. R. Appleby, Jr. Mattio Iardino, atrocious assault and battery and highway robbery. Counsel, H. S. Medinets.

G. H. ECKELS REAPPOINTED TILL JULY 1

City Attorney Hagerty Held This Action Could Be Legally Taken—Dr. Knox Presents Petitions and Speaks in Behalf of Mr. Eckels—Number of Applications for Position.

George H. Eckels, who was deposed as Superintendent of the New Brunswick schools a week ago, after seven years service, was re-appointed at the meeting of the Board of Education last night for the abbreviated term beginning on April 6 and terminating on July 1, 1917. This action was taken after City Attorney Thomas H. Hagerty had filed a legal opinion to the effect that Mr. Eckels' term expired on April 6, but advising that Mr. Eckels could legally be retained for the balance of the school year.

There was some doubt regarding the termination of Mr. Eckels' term at the meeting of the Board last week, when Mr. Eckels was dismissed by a vote of 3 to 2, action toward a successor being deferred until a legal opinion could be secured. Mr. Eckels insisted that his term did not terminate until the end of the school year, while the 3 in favor entertained the opinion that his contract expired in April. Mr. Hagerty upholds the latter opinion, which was rendered after an exhaustive study of the minutes of the school board. In part the opinion reads as follows: Board of Education of the City of New Brunswick:

"It is my opinion that when Mr. Eckels was originally elected on July 6, 1910, his election was for an unexpired term, ending at the stated meeting of April, 1911. Be this as it may, it cannot be doubted that the subsequent amendment of the by-laws and the election of April 7, 1911 for a term of three years defin-
