NEW BUS LINE STARTED HERE IS POPULAR

SAYREVILLE, July 14.—A new bus line has been started in town under the name of the Blue Bus Line, operated by Charles Weischadel, Jr.

Mr. Weischadel says that he will try his best to give the people of the town a good accommodation as can be had, if they'll patronize same.

A meeting of the Owl A. A. will be held at Rhode's Hall tonight at 7:30. Plans will be completed for their banquet to be held tonight.

Meeting of the Boy Scouts, Tuesday evening, all boys are asked to be present as some new drills will be taught.

Rev. W. A. Gillfillian, treasurer of the Welcome Home Committee, will be at the town hall tonight from 7:30 until 9 o'clock to receive money from organizations and individuals who promised same.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Janochia were out-of-town visitors recently. Some of the local people seen at Seider's Beach, Sunday, were Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Week, Jr., and family.

Miss Margaret Gottlieb, of South River, was a recent guest at the home of Miss Louisa Meyer, of Dane street.

Paul T. Locks has sold his Dodge touring car and purchased a 1919 Buick.

John Haag has been growing some fine tobacco on his farm here and a few days ago gave some to one of the local cigar makers who really appreciated some. Tobacco growing in Sayreville is something new.

Mrs. Erik and grandchild, Ester Reigle, of Kutztown, Pa., and Mrs. Stein, of Piquetteville, Pa., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Oswald, of Albert's Hill.

Excursion to Asbury Park Tuesday.—The annual excursion of the Sayreville M. E. Church to Asbury Park and Ocean Grove will be run next Tuesday, July 15. This is your chance for a good time at the sea.

Mr. Hoffield feels confident that Stewart will be brought back to this State, although the latter is making a desperate fight. Since going to San Diego he is said to have made a number of friends who are now willing to help him in his trouble.

MILLTOWN.

MILLTOWN, July 14.—Tonight is the time set to fittingly observe the independence of France in the borough when the French national holidays will be duly celebrated with a splendid program.

A street parade at 7 o'clock in which the war veterans of France will take a most prominent part, the local Red Cross of which every member is asked to be in line with their usual costumes, the French school children and various other organizations along with the Michelin band will make up the line.

After the parade a patriotic meeting will be held at the Michelin Park at which Judge Peter F. Daly will speak, and Capt. Charles Reed, who was severely wounded in France, will give a description of the army life. Other numbers are on the program and the climax of the anniversary program will be a block dance on the ball diamond. This ought to be a splendid affair and every one should turn out to celebrate the occasion.

Chamber of Commerce. Wednesday night is the regular meeting night of the Chamber of Commerce and arrangements have been completed to make this an unusual and attractive meeting.

Off for Sea Girl. Elburn Mattack and Harold Gilpin, of this place, left Saturday for Sea Girl, where they will train with the state militia men, both of the local men are members of Co. E of New Brunswick, and the trip down was made in Mr. Mattack's car.

Installation of Officers. On Thursday evening of this week the installation of the newly elected officers will be held at the Daughters of Liberty room and all members are asked to be present.

Parade at 7 P. M. The French Independence Day parade and celebration will take place promptly at 7 o'clock and it is the desire of the committee to have a large representation of Milltown citizens in line with three local organizations will march in a body, but the citizens at large are cordially invited to be on hand and to parade.

SOUTH RIVER NEWS AND ADVERTISEMENTS

Consul General a Guest of Honor at Polish Celebration

SOUTH RIVER, July 14.—The Polish people of South River were very highly honored yesterday by a visit from Constantin Buszczyński, consul general of Poland, with headquarters at the Hotel Belleclair, New York City.

A large street parade proceeded the evening in Wilson Hall. Forming on Jackson street in front of the Polish Church the parade passed through Ferry street to Main to the corner of Jackson, where they met their distinguished guest and his party on their arrival from New Brunswick, in automobile. The Polish Band played "The Star Spangled Banner" as the Consul was stepping from his auto to meet Officer Paul Genseck who was in charge of the parade.

The Consul General Buszczyński was the main speaker of the afternoon and he was given a rousing applause when he arose to speak. He told his countrymen that they owed much to the United States for the part she took in making Poland an independent republic.

Personal and Other News. A regular meeting of the Borough Council will be held tonight in the Council Chamber, at 8 o'clock.
