The citizens of South River are requested to decorate their homes and display flags in honor of the German visitors.

Charles Herrmann Sells Business. Charles Herrmann has sold out his grocery and butcher business to Joseph Rakanyi, a former employe, and Gottlieb Luthardt, of Sayreville, a former employe of Sayre & Fisher Company.

Several changes will be made as Rakanyi & Luthardt will not occupy the whole floor. A petition will be built across the middle of the room and a large plate glass window placed on the Thomas street side, which will be the front entrance to the store.

The remainder of the building will probably be divided into two stores, each having one large front window.

Mr. Herrmann has conducted a grocery business in South River almost 20 years.

Rev. F. W. Overhiser and family have been enjoying a vacation at Eatontown and vicinity. They expect to be home to-day, and on Sunday Mr. Overhiser will preach at both services. The communion will be administered at the morning service.

James Devore has returned to his home in Ocean Grove, after a pleasant visit among relatives in the borough.

David Armstrong, Jr., was in New York yesterday in the interest of his business.

A bouncing baby boy has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Johnson, Jr., of Jackson street. Policeman Johnson, being a grandfather, is all smiles.

Miss Minnie Miller, one of the office staff of the Musical String Works, left to-day for Asbury Park, where she will spend a two weeks vacation.

J. Selover and niece, Miss Helen Booren, are enjoying the ocean breezes of Asbury Park to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Jomas Franklin and daughter, Etta, have returned home from a vacation spent at New Sharon.

Henry Offenberger, of Canada, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cassimir

JACK THE FIDDLER IN JAIL FOR ANOTHER YEAR.

John Boyle, better known as "Jack the Fiddler" is back in jail again, committed by Recorder Kahoe, of Perth Amboy, for aye or for disorderly conduct. This is the second year Jack will have spent in jail since January 1, 1910.

TO BREAK UP COAL TRUST.

Railways and Bituminous Company Made Defendants in Suit.

Columbus, O., Aug. 5.—A suit in equity under the Sherman antitrust law to break up the bituminous coal trust was filed in the circuit court here by United States Attorney Sherman T. McPherson. The Lake Shore and Michigan Southern and the Chesapeake and Ohio are the principal railroads involved.

This action is regarded by officials of the department of justice as one of the most important actions instituted by the government under the antitrust law and corresponds in the bituminous coal fields to the proceedings of the government brought against the railroads forming the anthracite coal trust.

The citizens of South River are requested to decorate their homes and display flags in honor of the German visitors.

SAYREVILLE

HEALTH BOARD IS WARNED

THAT FOREIGNERS WHO CAME FROM "CHOLERA PORTS" ARE WORKING IN CLAY PITS—THEY LEFT HOME, HOWEVER, BEFORE THE OUTBREAK—OTHER SAYREVILLE NEWS.

SAYREVILLE, Aug. 5.—Warning was received by the local Board of Health Tuesday night, that there are foreigners working in the Crossman clay banks, in this township, who come from "cholera ports" in Europe. These ports have been condemned by the Government, following the recent scare in New York.

Paul Smith came before the board regarding the garbage dumped on his property. A complaint had been made against this dumping ground, which Mr. Smith so generously placed at the disposal of the township's health department, and that gentleman appeared to explain the cause of the registered complaint.

Inspector Boyler reported two alleged nuisances, and the clerk was authorized to notify the owners that such nuisances must be abated.

Dr. J. H. Beekman and Chief of Police Boyler, were appointed a committee to inspect the dog burying ground in this township maintained by South Amboy. Dr. Beekman reported that the new disinfectant used is satisfactory.

Dr. Beekman spoke of the need of a dog catcher and related several instances which took place during the past two months where mad dogs had caused scares, etc. in the township.

Dr. Beekman and Henry Boyler were appointed a committee with Richard Kemmerly relative to accepting the position.

A bill of A. W. Bissett for $24.00 was audited and ordered paid.

Those present Tuesday night were Thomas Creamer, Joseph Allgair, Robert Letts and Dr. J. H. Beekman. Paul Muschick, one of our local embroidery manufacturers, has just been granted a patent for "power transmission."

Henry Boyler, our local policeman took a Polish man to New Brunswick yesterday, who had been arrested for kicking a woman. He denied the charge, saying he would rather pay fifty dollars fine than admit kicking her when he didn't do it.

Sayre & Fisher Company lost a valuable horse on Wednesday. It was taken to the "Will Fisher pond" for a drink, when it in some way caught its head in the bridge and fell. It broke its neck in its fall and was drowned.

Logan Way, of Coraopolis, Pa., is visiting friends in town.

Mrs. Henry Holthausen and children left today for Morgan, where they will camp for a week in company with Mrs. Walter Letts and son, Harold.

Charles Holsworth, formerly bartender at August Kohde's, has accepted a position with the Smokeless Powder Company at Parler.

John Burkhardt, who had his foot badly hurt in the July 4 ball game, has returned to his duties at the Sayre & Fisher Company store.

Dani Wood, Jr., is spending a few days with his aunt, Mrs. J. H. Brewer at Ocean Grove.

Frank Chubb, bologna maker, for the Sayre & Fisher Company, is contemplating a trip to Hungary.

Don't forget to make your arrangements to go on the excursion to Asbury Park, on August 5. The excursion is under the auspices of the Methodist Episcopal Church and promises to be a grand success.

Mrs. Emerick, of Upper Sayreville, spent Thursday at South Amboy.

Miss Martha B. Bradley, of Canandaigua, New York, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. James Froinne.

Mrs. S. E. Stelle, Miss May Evans, Miss Mildred Stelle and Clarkson Stelle were Asbury Park visitors on Friday.

Miss Florence Snediker starts tomorrow for a visit with friends in New Haven.

German Reformed, Rev. W. F. Barney, pastor, Sunday school 9.30 a. m.; morning services, 10.30; twilight service 7.8 p. m. All are cordially invited to worship with us.

MILLTOWN.

THIS IS MILLTOWN'S BIG DAY

Parade, Picnic and Fireworks Will Help Celebrate the Arrival of Borough's First Fire Apparatus—Boy Badly Burned.

MILLTOWN, Aug. 5.—The day of great import to Milltown history has at last arrived and every resident from the ages of 5 to 90 will do honor to the firemen who take charge of the day.

Homes and public buildings are prettily decorated with the red, white and blue and the air of the town is one of gaiety. The borough hall is covered with flags and bunting and is a fit home for the borough's first fire apparatus.

The big picnic which is staged at Milltown Park, begins at 3 o'clock, when Sheridan's full orchestra plays for all who care to dance.

At 1 o'clock the firemen will meet at the borough hall to form for the parade. The line will be led by the borough's stalwart marshals followed by the Milltown Fife, Drum and Bugle Corps, which will reel off the tunes as never before.

The line of march will be from the Borough Hall on Main street to Church street, to Clay street, to Ford avenue, to Main street, to Booram avenue, countermarch to Riva avenue, Riva avenue to grove.

When darkness has sufficiently covered the town a brilliant display of fireworks will be given at the grove. Great preparations have been made to accommodate the large crowd.

Mayor Richters' Day. This will be a great day for Mayor Conrad Richters, who has been the instrument in organizing a fire department and whose vigor has finally obtained fire protection for the borough. This is his day too.

Boy Badly Burned. The four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lee, met with a painful accident last night at his home on Clay street.

When darkness has sufficiently covered the town a brilliant display of fireworks will be given at the grove. Great preparations have been made to accommodate the large crowd.
