

Sunday Services In The Churches

CHRIST CHURCH. Holy communion, 7.30 a. m.; morning prayer and sermon, 10.30 a. m.; Sunday school, 2.30 p. m. Service at 7 o'clock without sermon, to allow the congregation to attend the mass meeting in the First Reformed Church at 7.30 p. m. Wednesday, morning prayer and litany, 9.00; Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, holy communion, 7.30 a. m.; morning prayer and sermon, 10.30 a. m. Friday, morning prayer and litany, 10.00. Episcopal Sunday school, Highland Park, 1.30 p. m.

NEWS FROM THE SUBURBS

Milltown News.

ORDINANCE TO WIDEN RIVA AVE. IS PASSED

MILLTOWN, Nov. 22.—An adjourned meeting of the Borough Council was held last evening. Mayor Conrad Richter presiding. Councilmen Chas. Bauries, Henry Kuhlthau, Geo. E. Crabel, Al Skewis, B. Miller, Clerk R. A. Harkins, Messrs. C. W. Waddington and R. B. Sheppard of the water commission board were present.

MORE CANDIDATES FILE STATEMENTS

City Clerk McMurtry has received the sworn statement of Alderman James H. Curran, showing that his expenses in connection with his election to Council from the Third Ward were nil.

South River News

THREE FUNERALS IN THE BOROUGH

Young Woman, Old Man and Babe Laid at Rest—Rev. Overhiser Leaves for New Charge—Interesting Social Items.

is pleased to come here and think it a good sign that both Catholics and Protestants, in looking back to that period often termed the Dark Ages, find that now we are able to think more logically along Scriptural lines than our forefathers; and a good sign also that our hearts are in truer nobler condition, even though our heads have not yet gotten into proper adjustment with our hearts, and we still look at crooked doctrines and try to imagine them altogether straight.

ABANDONS CHILD; IS ARRESTED

Ester Szack, of 34 Washington street, this city, was arrested here yesterday by Detective Dunn on the complaint of Chief of Police Burke, of Perth Amboy.

SOUTH RIVER, Nov. 22.—The funeral of Miss Carrie Tucker, who died Tuesday evening at her home on Hillside avenue, after a prolonged illness of nervous trouble, was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Methodist Church.

"But," queries Mr. Herde, "what about the remainder of mankind? Our larger hearts will not consent that all except the saints must spend an eternity of torture, even if this is the logic of our creeds: reason protests. Three fourths of humanity today are heathen and fully that proportion of humanity altogether have never heard of God and the terms of salvation. What about them?"

JUST PERSONALS.

THE WEDDING OF MISS LORETTA McFadden, of Bayard street, and Arthur Allgor will be quietly solemnized before the end of the year.

BURIAL OF AN OLD GERMAN.

Henry Lemberman, a retired blacksmith, aged 82 years, of Sayreville, was buried this morning at 10 o'clock in the Monumental Cemetery by Undertaker Morgan.

A HIGH-GRADE ARTICLE.

"Middlesex Club Whiskey" for sale all over this vicinity is a leader around these parts and no mistake.

MRS. W. HENDRICKS MADE PRESIDENT

A very interesting meeting was held yesterday afternoon in the auditorium of the High School by the Parent-Teacher's Association of the Livingston school. Piano duets were rendered by Miss Louise Zimmerman and Mrs. Durham.

DR. KNOK'S LECTURE MUCH ENJOYED

The Men's League of the First Presbyterian Church held a meeting last evening having invited everybody to hear Rev. W. W. Knox's stereopticon lecture on "Making Americans."

GOING HUNTING.

Get your shells at Bissett's store. All size loads for 12 gauge guns you'll find here. Other news concerning this store is new sauerkraut at 5c per pound and fine sweet cider which has just come in.

CONFESSES TO SALOON ROBBERY

David Hankins was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detective Sergeant Dunn, on a charge of breaking, entering and larceny. He has confessed to stealing six bottles of whiskey, some cigars, and watches from the saloon of Paul Waggl, at the corner of Washington and Neilson streets. He has been committed to the county jail.

$11,000 IN THE ADAM LUTZ ESTATE

An intermediate account was approved by Judge Daly yesterday, filed by Samuel E. Lutz, as trustee under the will of Adam Lutz, late of this city. The account shows the present estate to be $11,005.10.

Milltown to Have New Order.

C. H. Crenning, who is well versed in lodge work, has decided to use his best efforts towards instituting an Order of Owls in the borough, provided he can secure the necessary signers to the petition, which he is about to circulate.

DR. SCHENCK SAILS FOR THE HOLY LAND

For the first time in twenty-five years the home occupied by the Schenck family has been closed up. Various friends dropped in the Schenck home last evening and extended wishes for a delightful trip.

PERSONALS.

The Senior Class of the South River High School will hold a bag social in the school auditorium on Thanksgiving evening.

Vote for Sassaman

and elect him as your Tailor, and you will always be well dressed. Ferry Street, South River.

Miss MARGARET A. KAISER

... Milliner ... Baldwin Building, 349 GEORGE ST. New Brunswick, N. J. Phone 1395-J.

OPENING

The Only Exclusive Men's and Young Men's Store in South River We are no experient Watch our Opening, Saturday the 22nd Look at our Windows for Souvenirs BREUER'S FOR THE BETTER CLASS SONTAG BUILDING, FERRY ST., SOUTH RIVER

The Modern Man or Woman

recognizes the necessity of a bank account. It gives an acquaintance at the bank which is necessary to accommodation in time of need. A stranger at the bank cannot expect to get a loan on a few minutes' acquaintance. The man or woman who earns some, spends less and has a pass book on this bank is out of the worrying class. BEGIN TO-DAY to deposit regularly with THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF SOUTH RIVER