NEW JERSEY MAY GET MODEL OF NAMESAKE

Senator Hepburn's Bill Provides for Toyships for Exhibition Purposes at State Capitols.

TRENTON, Jan. 26.—The adjutant general's department at the State House has received from Washington a copy of Senate bill No. 90, which was introduced by United tates Senator Hepburn. It provides for a deposit of a model of any vesel of war of the United States navy bearing the name of a State of the United States in the capitol of the said State.

Under the provisions of the bill the secretary of the navy is instructed to cause to be built a fully completed model of each vessel of war of the navy which has now or may hereafter be given the name borne by any State. The said model is to be deposited in the capitol and placed in a prominent place convenient for public view.

The New Jersey, one of the finest war vessels in the United States navy, will soon be commissioned, and if this bill becomes a law, the vessel will be represented at the capitol in this city by a fine model. The bill was introduced December 6 and is in the hands of the committee on naval affairs.

MILLTOWN'S ARMLESS WONDER AT WORK

He Hunts and Hoes, Fishes and Rows as Well as Men Who Have Arms.

MILLTOWN, Jan. 8.—Deprived of both arms forty odd years ago, John Fox, of Milltown, has become so expert in the use of the hooks which are attached to the stumps of his arms that he does many things as well as many men who possess both arms. Fox always goes out gunning after rabbits as soon as the season opens. One of his arms was taken off below the elbow, and the other above the elbow in a graining machine in the old rubber shop at Milltown.

Fox has a gun fitted with a strap which holds the weapon in place to his shoulder. With one of his arms he supports the gun so that he can aim it at the game, and the trigger is pulled by means of a string with his teeth. Fox was out the other day and had not been searching for rabbits more than half an hour before he shot one. He returned to Milltown and had the gun loaded again and set out for another rabbit.

The old man is now 72 years old. He is an ardent fisherman in season and also manages to scull a light boat with ease. He takes care of a garden at home and pulls a cultivator plow by means of the hooks. He is cheerful despite the deprivation of his hands.

RESCUED FROM RAFT

Topeka Picks Up Twenty Survivors of the Valencia.

CAPTAIN, A HERO, STICKS TO HIS SHIP

Terrible Tale of Suffering From Cold and Drenching Seas—Another Raft With Eight Women Left Wreck and May Be Saved.

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 26.—A special dispatch from Port Angels says that the rescue ship City of Topeka has picked up a life raft six miles off Cape Beale with twenty survivors of the steamer Valencia on board.

The survivors rescued from the raft were in a pitiable condition. They were half frozen and practically unconscious from the exposure. When the raft was sighted, owing to the thick weather it was supposed to be a log. At last by the aid of a powerful glass its true nature was determined.

A terrible sea was running. One minute the raft was poised on top of a wave and the next it would be lost from view in the gulley formed by the mountainous billows.

The twenty men on their frail support battled bravely with a pair of oars to reach the City of Topeka, which, owing to the dangerous coast, could not run closer to them. Within half a mile from the raft a boat was lowered from the Topeka, in charge of Second Mate Burke, who with much difficulty succeeded in making fast a line to the raft.

The work of rescuing them was dangerous. The men were too exhausted to tie a rope about themselves.

The survivors told terrible tales of the wreck of the vessel. When they left the ship there were about sixty persons on board, most of them clinging to the rigging.

Passengers and crew during the night prior to the departure of the life rafts from the Valencia, according to those saved, begged Captain O. M. Johnson, the commander, to place a life belt about his waist. This he persistently refused to do. In spite of the fact that those near him begged him to think of his family and friends, Captain Johnson would not do a single thing to help his condition. He made the statement that he would never leave the wreck alive.

According to survivors, about thirty persons left the wreck on the two life rafts and in a boat.

Captain Gibbs, who went from Seattle to the wreck on the steamer City of Topeka, said the survivors told him that the best of order was preserved on board.

"When the time came for the lifeboats to leave the Valencia," said Captain Gibbs, "the officers ordered all the women to take to the rafts. The survivors say that in spite of the fact that the Valencia was beginning to break up the women refused to go on the life rafts or in the lifeboats, stating that they would take their chances with the ship rather than leave.

When the men rescued left the wreck there were known to be aboard the Valencia about sixty persons, as follows: Captain Johnson, First Officer Holmes, Fourth Officer Aberg, Chief Engineer W. E. Downing, Assistant Freight Clerk E. E. Hopkins, Chief Steward J. Hoddinott, Second Steward N. H. Campbell, Barkeeper Wilkins, Stewardess Musgrove, Porter Hughes, eight women, three children and about forty men.

The whaling steamer Orion reports having seen three men on shore around a fire. It was thought that these men were survivors as yet unaccounted for.

A statement given out here says that information had been received from the wreck that a life raft and a lifeboat, yet unaccounted for, had got away safely from the Valencia. On the raft were eight women, it is stated, while no one knows how many were in the lifeboat.

CASTORIA.
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. The Kind You Have Always Bought

ACCUSES STATE PRINTERS.

Senator Armstrong Says Committee Is Hampered by Intentional Delay.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 26.—Senator Armstrong and Assemblyman Cox of the joint special committee which has been investigating life insurance methods introduced in the respective houses of the legislature a bill authorizing the printing of 5,000 copies of the testimony taken at the investigation at a cost not to exceed $20,000. The bill was immediately advanced to third reading and referred to the senate finance and assembly ways and means committee, after sensational charges had been made in both houses against the Brandow Printing company of Albany, the state legislative printers.

Assemblyman Cox declared that the printers had hampered the committee by "piratical and insolent" actions and evidently intended not to furnish a volume of the testimony while the legislature was in session, thus preventing the legislators from giving due consideration to the foundation of the committee's report, which, he said, would be submitted to both houses during February.

Senator Armstrong declared that he had full proof that the state printers were purposely delaying the printing of the report and would thus retard the action of the legislature on insurance matters.

CASTRO'S ATTITUDE.

Personal Statement From Venezuelan President.

CARACAS, Venezuela, Jan. 26.—In reply to a request sent him for a statement of Venezuela's attitude concerning the Franco-Venezuelan situation President Castro immediately telegraphed as follows from Maracay:

"Mr. Taigny, the French charge d'affaires at Caracas, not only violated diplomatic etiquette, as is proved by the fact of his presenting a protest against the Venezuelan government when the French Cable company was calmed and had been almost arranged with, but the protest has brought the disagreeable situation between France and Venezuela to the point of a rupture of friendly relations.

"But, not content with this, he, having been deprived by his government of the diplomatic character with which he was invested in Venezuela, violated as a French citizen the laws of the port of La Guayra by embarking on a French liner, whereupon the Venezuelan government in order to avoid new difficulties and after its police had been treated contemptuously resolved not to permit Taigny to reland."

May Prove Murder at Evansboro.

MOUNT HOLLY, N. J., Jan. 26.—At Evansboro, a small village three miles from Moorestown, John Busby, a stalwart negro, committed a felonious assault on Hannah Sharp, fifteen years old, who was alone in the house at the time. She fought desperately, at the same time calling for help. At this juncture the girl's brother, John Sharp, returned to the house, whereupon Busby turned on him, stabbing him twice in the breast and then fled. The alarm was given, and a score of farmers turned out to hunt the fugitive, who was finally captured and landed in jail. It is feared Sharp's injuries may prove fatal.

Lynch Mob After Negro.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Jan. 26.—A mob of 1,500 men, many of whom were armed, beset the county jail for several hours last night, demanding a negro who criminally assaulted Miss Nevada Taylor. The sheriff said the guilty negro had been taken to Knoxville. The mob refused to believe this statement, but did not make any united attack on the jail. Windows were broken and shots were fired, but the mob soon scattered.

Wall Street Needs the Knife.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 26.—At the annual banquet of the Louisville board of trade Stuyvesant Fish, responding to the toast "Economy," arraigned Wall street and the big three life insurance companies, paid his respects to the lack of economy in municipal, state and national affairs and then to waste in the household. He said Wall street was suffering from a sort of appendicitis and was badly in need of the surgeon's knife.

This From Plainfield.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., Jan. 26.—While cleaning a smelt here Fred Ivamy found in its stomach a small bottle, securely corked. Inside was the following message on a piece of writing paper: "Whoever gets this note will confer a favor by replying to the undersigned. Harry Durant, Margate, Prince Edward Island, Canada, Jan. 4, 1906." In nineteen days it had traveled 1,000 miles.

No Truth In It.

PRINCETON, N. J., Jan. 26.—Ex-President Cleveland was asked at his residence about a report that he is thinking of giving up his post as arbiter of rebates for the insurance companies. Mr. Cleveland dictated this statement, "There is not a particle of truth in the report nor any excuse for its circulation."

FRANK ROCKEFELLER DENIES.

As a Law Abiding Citizen Will Appear, but Is Out of Oil Business.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 26.—Frank Rockefeller gave out a statement, in which he denied that he had told the deputy sheriff who served him with a subpoena to appear as a witness in connection with the action of the state of Missouri against the Standard Oil company that he would refuse to testify.

Mr. Rockefeller said: "I have made no statement that I would refuse to respond to a subpoena in this case. As a law abiding citizen I have always and always expect to respond to any process of the courts.

"I have, however," he explained to Attorney General Hadley, "said that my connection with the oil business ceased six years prior to the time to which his suit refers, and I think that he is satisfied that I have no information that would be of any service to this litigation, but should he ask me to appear as a witness I will, of course, respond."

DECATUR DISMISSED.

Admiral Sands Upholds Naval Academy as Well Disciplined.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Secretary of the Navy Bonaparte has issued an order directing the dismissal of Midshipman Stephen Decatur, Jr., of Portsmouth, N. H., who was convicted by court martial at Annapolis on charges of hazing. Midshipman Decatur is a descendant of Commodore Stephen Decatur.

The submission by Secretary Bonaparte of an antihazing bill and testimony by Rear Admiral Sands, superintendent of the Naval academy, as to discipline at Annapolis featured the meeting of the house committee on naval affairs.

Admiral Sands contended that the discipline at Annapolis was excellent. He said he had no doubt it was quite equal to that at West Point and expressed the opinion that no equal number of young men assembled anywhere were better behaved.

Santo Domingo's Debts.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—That Santo Domingo's total debt runs considerably in excess of any figures heretofore given is shown in the confidential report of Dr. Jacob H. Hollander, President Roosevelt's special commissioner, which has reached the state department in final form. Dr. Hollander placed the total at $40,269,404.83. The government had the habit of ending frequent revolutions by pensioning the rebels and borrowed large sums at extortionate rates. The report favors the president's receivership scheme as the only way out of the difficulties.

Her Child In Consumption

After Three Doctors Had Given Her Up, Saved by Father John's Medicine.

MRS. GEO. A. HOWLAND.

"I had my daughter treated by very skillful doctors and none of them helped her in the least. She continued to fail, had no appetite, was very nervous, coughed very much and had no ambition to play, but wished to lie down all the time. The last three doctors who treated her said she was in consumption, was in a decline, and there was no help for her. Then I commenced to give her Father John's Medicine. From the first, her appetite kept right on improving, until now she eats a hearty meal three times a day, besides a lunch between. Nervousness has entirely left her. She goes to bed at 8 p. m. and sleeps until 7 a. m. I am still giving the medicine to her, to be sure to cure her lungs if there is really any trouble left, although she does not cough now.

"I have given her almost three bottles of Father John's Medicine in small doses and am very grateful for the good it has done her, and think if mothers would try that instead of doctors' medicine, their little ones would be sick less." (Signed) Mrs. G. A. Howland, 122 Howard avenue, Roxbury, Mass.

Wm. Vedder of Schenectady, N. Y., Tells How Father John's Medicine Cured a Hard Racking Cough and Built Up His Strength.

"As I am desirous that others should know of the benefit which I have received from Father John's Medicine, I state the following facts: Last fall I had a severe attack of pneumonia and was confined to the house for four months. At the end of that time I was still suffering from a hard, racking cough, from which the doctors could give me no relief. I tried everything I could think or hear of, but with no beneficial result. In this condition, I returned to work. One day a shopmate noticing how I was suffering advised me to try a bottle of Father John's Medicine. I did so and began to get relief at once. I was soon cured of the cough and able once more to take a good night's rest, but fearing that the cough might return I continued taking the medicine until I had used twelve bottles. When I began to take the medicine I was in a very weak condition, but I gained in strength rapidly and as now as strong as ever. I believe my cure was due entirely to Father John's Medicine, and I heartily recommend it to all who are similarly afflicted." (Signed) William Vedder, 9 Ingersoll avenue, Schenectady, N. Y. Remember, not a patent medicine, no poisonous drugs or alcohol. Fifty years in use; prevents pneumonia and consumption. Cures coughs and colds.
