

LITTLE GIRL LUNGES THROUGH ICE AND DROWNS

OPENING OF HOTEL FIXED FOR MARCH

Public Dinner to Open Woodrow Wilson Soon After March 20
RUSH WORK ON INTERIOR OF HOTEL
All Stores on First Floor Have Been Leased, Says Mitchell

Nationally Known Editor Speaks Here Wednesday

H. V. Kaltenborn Will Give Lecture Under Auspices of Anable Alumnae

H. V. KALTENBORN

H. V. Kaltenborn, nationally known radio speaker, traveler, lecturer, critic and editor will give "America's Place in the World Today" on Wednesday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock. The lecture is under the auspices of the Anable Alumnae Association and will be at the Community House on Water Street.

SENATOR REED LOCAL MAN SCORES DRY LAW BACKERS

Declares Man Who Voted Dry and Still Drinks is a "Knaveish Coward"

(By the Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—A torrent of words and denials for prohibition and the disciples of prohibition today by Senator Reed of Missouri. Delivering one of the most scathing speeches of the session which is being the Missouri House himself voluntarily off the stage of public service, he lashed upon those who voted dry and still drink with a fury which even he has seldom approached in the historic years of his turbulent senatorial career.

Divorce Witness Is Called On To Pay Fine

Mrs. Alice Straker of Oak Street, Franklin township, who was one of the witnesses in the famous Gowen divorce action at Trenton a few weeks ago and one of those against whom charges of perjury were preferred by the court, was fined $5 by Justice Mrs. Elye Chandler on Saturday on a charge of disobeying court.

REGAINS HER SON AFTER SIX YEARS

Otilda Holzer Refuses to Allow Son to be Questioned
HAS NOT ASKED HIM WHERE HE HAS BEEN
Believed to Have Been in Many Parts of Globe With Father

Otilda Holzer of Milltown returned to her home Saturday afternoon with her son, Vincent Westburg, whom she located in Chicago two days ago after an absence of more than six years.

MARGARET ADAMS DROWNS IN SPITE OF BROTHER'S HELP

Steve Adams Dives for Sister and Then is Rescued by Peter Bubrow
GIRL GOES THROUGH ICE WHILE PLAYING
Local Police and Firemen Search for Body in Somerset County Pond

Margaret Adams, nine, of 255 Somerset street, was drowned in a pond in back of her own home late Saturday afternoon in spite of the valiant efforts of her brother, Steve, aged ten, who almost lost his own life trying to save her.

Melville E. Stone Funeral Monday

(By the Associated Press) NEW YORK, Feb. 16.—Funeral services for Melville E. Stone, for more than a quarter of a century general manager of the Associated Press, who died last night in his 81st year, will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon in the Park Avenue Baptist Church at 533 Park Avenue. The Rev. Harry Emerson Fosdick will officiate. Burial will be private.

Governor Larson Is Now Bank Director

NEWARK, Feb. 16.—Governor Larson has been elected a director of the New Jersey National Bank & Trust Co. He has accepted, according to an announcement today by John J. Standley, president of the bank, and will assume the duties of chairman of the executive committee at once. The election took place yesterday, but announcement was withheld today pending the governor's formal acceptance.

Reed's Prediction

As Reed warned his subject he said that in time the country will see the prohibition law come to an ignominious end.

GIRL BADLY HURT BY MOTOR CAR

Nora French of Milltown in Hospital Not Expected to Live
DRIVER OF CAR IS HELD UNDER BAIL
Others Less Seriously Injured in Accidents on Local Streets

Nora French, six, of Sand street, Milltown, is in Middlesex hospital in a serious condition and is not expected to live as a result of injuries sustained when struck by an auto near her home on Saturday afternoon.

Arrest Egan On Charge of Having Too Many Wives

Charged with bigamy, William Egan, twenty-three, of Monmouth Junction, formerly of this city, was arrested Saturday afternoon by Trooper Johnson of the Highlands.

Stricken Man Was Retired Merchant

Entertainer Charles E. Darling of this city learned on Saturday afternoon that James M. Jeffers, who died suddenly on a Pennsylvania passenger train in this city while en route from New York to Philadelphia, was a retired merchant living at 848 Madison Ave.

Larson to Decide On Auto or Horse

New Jersey Governor is More Likely to Pick Motor Car for Hoover Inaugural Parade, Because He Must Wear High Hat

President Sends His Sympathy To Mrs. Melville Stone

(By the Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—President Coolidge today sent a letter of condolence to Mrs. Melville E. Stone, upon the death of her husband, the former general manager of the Associated Press.

LATE WIRE BRIEFS

HATTI RATHUS TREATY
PORT-AU-PRINCE, HATTI, Feb. 16.—The Haitian Council of State today ratified a treaty with the Dominican Republic respecting the frontier between the two countries.

MAIL DELAY

Plots from Butler Airport will be sent to the Newark Airport Sunday in the morning, it was reported today.

Huge Plant in Operation May 1

John Merrill Will be in Charge of Combustion Plant in Raritan Township; Similar Factory to be Erected in Coatesville