

LIFE IN NEW BRUNSWICK'S MANY SUBURBS

Sayreville.

HOPE TO GET FIVE-CENT FARE TO MILLTOWN

Petition for Cut Rate for Especial Benefit of Employees of Industries Who Reside Here to Be Presented to Township Committee To-night—Personal News.

SAYREVILLE, March 31.—The local committee men will convene to-night for their regular monthly meeting.

A petition signed by employees from this town who commute daily with Milltown factories, will be handed to the Board for consideration and action.

William Zack, who spent several weeks with Sayreville friends, returned to his home in Germany on Saturday.

Messrs. Joseph Kennedy and Patrick Reilly, of Bergen Hill, spent Sunday afternoon with local friends.

Rudolph Sier will spend Saturday and Sunday with his parents at the Presbyterian parsonage.

The Misses Florence Letts and Mamie Gulliflow were South Amboy visitors on Sunday.

Miss Ruth Baker, of Highland Park, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. Mrs. Herman Baker, at Parlin.

William Bright, Jr., has accepted a position as painter with the Crossman Clay Co.

At the last meeting of the Board of Directors of the Sayreville Building and Loan Association, a loan of $1,000 on the property located at Newton Heights, was approved.

Louis Wagner has been confined to the house with an attack of neuralgia.

Walter Riddle spent Sunday with his parents at Lynbrook.

Miss Lydia Heath, of South Amboy, was the Sunday guest of her sister, Mrs. Carl Bosong.

Harry Letts, who has been working for the E. R. B., has resigned his position.

Mrs. Jacob Whiteshuttle was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. George Bowne, in New Brunswick, on Sunday.

Mrs. J. H. Beekman and daughter, Miss Mabel Beekman, spent Saturday in New York City.

Mrs. Bertha Schramm spent Sunday with her sister in New York City.

Whitehead Bros. are repairing their docks on the river front at Sayreville.

Mrs. John Dahlgren was the guest of New Brunswick relatives on Saturday.

Miss Della Smith visited Mrs. William Giles in Highland Park on Saturday.

Mrs. Edward Letts entertained Miss Grace Farmer over Sunday.

Public School No. 1 has organized two baseball teams, known as teams A and B.

The Red Men held a euchre party in Segreg's hall last Friday night.

The Knights of Pythias will meet this evening.

The Pinochle Club will meet to-morrow evening at the Old Homestead.

The Whirlwind baseball team will join the County League.

Spotswood.

FOUND—Scotch collie. Inquire, Club House, Parlin, N. J. m30-3t.

Milltown News.

FIRST STEP FOR FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY IN THE BOROUGH

Will Be Benefit Entertainment Given by the Public School Children Here on Friday—Red Men and Friends Meet To-night.

MILLTOWN, March 31.—On Friday evening of this week, beginning at 8.15, at the Public School, a musical comedy entitled, "The Minister's Honey-moon," will be rendered.

Four of the local teachers, who are also connected with the entertainment, are the local school, and also one of the church of the borough, and also one to the public school.

The drama "Our Old Kentucky Home," to be given in Voorhees' Hall on Friday evening, April 3, promises to be a fine entertainment.

Miss M. Louise Cortelou, of Ten Mile Run, was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Cortelou.

Frank Stout and daughter, of Monmouth Junction, spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Z. Griggs.

The Sewing Society of the Reformed Church will hold its meeting at the home of Mrs. P. V. Cortelou.

Messrs. Peter V. Cortelou and Peter Weston, as elders, and Howard Volk and Samuel Abrams as deacons, were installed in their offices in the Reformed Church on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Mary E. Longstreet has been confined to the house most of the winter with rheumatism and grip.

The Sabbath school of the Reformed Church will hold appropriate Easter exercises in the chapel on Easter Sunday morning.

Messrs. Percy Ward and Harold Moore spent Thursday and Friday in New York City, returning Friday evening.

Mrs. Charles Denhard and son have returned after a sojourn to New York.

Paul Matzke is confined to his home with tonsillitis. He was unable to talk yesterday.

G. Gehlert recently moved from the corner of Broad and Clay streets to the Kuhlthau apartments on Main street.

Joe Chorko is ill at his home in Fresh Pond with the mumps.

The factory of the Michelin Tire Company was closed in part yesterday and to-day for the purpose of taking inventory.

Monsieur Jacobs resumed his duties at the Michelin tire factory yesterday, after being confined to his home for several days with the grip.

Mrs. James Townsend is ill at her home on School street, with pleurisy.

A meeting of the old Board of Education will be held at the school Thursday evening.

An informal dance will be held by members of the A. A. A. in Red Men's Hall to-morrow evening.

Work would benefit by sewers.

In many of the cellars of the homes in the neighborhood of Broad street, Clay street and Riva avenue, there has been as much as three or four feet of water, all of which no doubt will be easily removed.

A copy of the deed for the transfer of a property belonging to John Richter and wife, and located on the south side of Clay street, 155 feet north from Broad street, Milltown, has been filed in the County Record building, New Brunswick.

The city council will hold a regular meeting to-night in the City Hall.

An important meeting of the Users' Union will be held to-night in the lecture room of the M. E. Church.

The last link that connected him with the pastorate of the First Baptist Church, of this city, by moving all his belongings to the freight car that is to convey the goods and chattels to Pottstown, the new location of the retired pastor, Mr. Nell received many assurances of good will and kindly regard from many members of his former flock.

The plate glass window of the store of Mrs. Dora Ginter, that was broken by the storm some time ago, was replaced yesterday by new glass.

Miss Amelia Everitt resumed her duties in the schools yesterday, after a week's absence on account of illness.

Joe Kruger, Charles Jerome and Joseph Sundusky were arranged before Magistrate Birmingham Monday evening, charged with releasing brakes on coal cars of the Pennsylvania Railroad "in Deep Cut," South Amboy.

The girls enjoyed the instruction very much.

FOR EASTER we have a variety of delicious cakes, pies and pastry, including our famous "Hot Cross Buns"—not forgetting our ever popular home-made bread.

HERMANN'S BAKERY, Milltown, N. J.

Rocky Hill.

ROCKY HILL, March 31.—Mrs. H. W. Hoagland and Mrs. George W. Campbell, of Park Place, called on friends in the borough on Saturday.

The Church Workers' Society, at a meeting last week, decided to hold the annual harvest home on the church grounds on Saturday, August 1.

Rev. George H. Donovan was a Trenton visitor Tuesday of last week.

Postmaster T. F. Stryker has been confined to the house during the past week with a severe attack of the grip.

Miss Mary G. Voorhees and B. Westbrook Voorhees, of Belle Mead, spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Stryker.

Mrs. Edwin S. Voorhees, who has been confined to the house for the past two weeks, is slowly improving.

A large dance was held in Voorhees' Hall, Friday evening, March 27, given by Madames I. Nelson and A. E. Haynes.

The real estate of the late Smith Wright is advertised for sale on April 18.

Miss M. Louise Cortelou, of Ten Mile Run, was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Cortelou.

Frank Stout and daughter, of Monmouth Junction, spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Z. Griggs.

The Sewing Society of the Reformed Church will hold its meeting at the home of Mrs. P. V. Cortelou.

Messrs. Peter V. Cortelou and Peter Weston, as elders, and Howard Volk and Samuel Abrams as deacons, were installed in their offices in the Reformed Church on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Mary E. Longstreet has been confined to the house most of the winter with rheumatism and grip.

The Sabbath school of the Reformed Church will hold appropriate Easter exercises in the chapel on Easter Sunday morning.

Messrs. Percy Ward and Harold Moore spent Thursday and Friday in New York City, returning Friday evening.

Mrs. Charles Denhard and son have returned after a sojourn to New York.

Paul Matzke is confined to his home with tonsillitis. He was unable to talk yesterday.

G. Gehlert recently moved from the corner of Broad and Clay streets to the Kuhlthau apartments on Main street.

Joe Chorko is ill at his home in Fresh Pond with the mumps.

The factory of the Michelin Tire Company was closed in part yesterday and to-day for the purpose of taking inventory.

Monsieur Jacobs resumed his duties at the Michelin tire factory yesterday, after being confined to his home for several days with the grip.

Mrs. James Townsend is ill at her home on School street, with pleurisy.

A meeting of the old Board of Education will be held at the school Thursday evening.

An informal dance will be held by members of the A. A. A. in Red Men's Hall to-morrow evening.

Work would benefit by sewers.

In many of the cellars of the homes in the neighborhood of Broad street, Clay street and Riva avenue, there has been as much as three or four feet of water, all of which no doubt will be easily removed.

A copy of the deed for the transfer of a property belonging to John Richter and wife, and located on the south side of Clay street, 155 feet north from Broad street, Milltown, has been filed in the County Record building, New Brunswick.

The city council will hold a regular meeting to-night in the City Hall.

An important meeting of the Users' Union will be held to-night in the lecture room of the M. E. Church.

The last link that connected him with the pastorate of the First Baptist Church, of this city, by moving all his belongings to the freight car that is to convey the goods and chattels to Pottstown, the new location of the retired pastor, Mr. Nell received many assurances of good will and kindly regard from many members of his former flock.

The plate glass window of the store of Mrs. Dora Ginter, that was broken by the storm some time ago, was replaced yesterday by new glass.

Miss Amelia Everitt resumed her duties in the schools yesterday, after a week's absence on account of illness.

Joe Kruger, Charles Jerome and Joseph Sundusky were arranged before Magistrate Birmingham Monday evening, charged with releasing brakes on coal cars of the Pennsylvania Railroad "in Deep Cut," South Amboy.

The girls enjoyed the instruction very much.

FOR EASTER we have a variety of delicious cakes, pies and pastry, including our famous "Hot Cross Buns"—not forgetting our ever popular home-made bread.

HERMANN'S BAKERY, Milltown, N. J.

South River News

Nonpareils Are Bending Every Effort to Make Fair a Big Success

SOUTH RIVER, March 31.—Members of the Nonpareils Club are bending every effort to make their fair, which will be held on April 24, 25, 26, a grand success.

Mrs. Louis Breuer entertained her parents, of Jersey City, over the weekend.

Mrs. Fred Quad has returned home from Trenton, where she has been visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Schantz and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Bevington, of Trenton, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Leverett Smith.

Arthur Burke, manager of the local branch of Childs' grocery store, spent Sunday with his parents in Lambertville.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Morgan, who have been spending the winter with her mother, Mrs. Peter Davis, of Highland Park, have returned to their home on upper Main street.

Mrs. Harold Cohn, of Brooklyn, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Wright.

The big cake sale which was to have been conducted this Saturday by members of Miss Carlotta Simonson's Sunday school class, has been postponed one week.

Miss Etta Franklin, who has been enjoying a month's vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Franklin, has returned to New York, where she will resume her studies in the trained nurses' class in St. Sinal Hospital.

Mrs. Lucy Van Deventer, of Ocean Grove, is visiting Mrs. Eliza Martin and daughter, Miss Emma Martin.

Mrs. Jonathan Roorem is spending a day with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Lockwood, of East Millstone.

The Circle of King's Daughters will meet Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Charles Coomb.

The Nosakin Club was pleasantly entertained last night at Miss Beulah Stuts, at the home of Mrs. Hans Franzen.

Miss A. Case, of New York, a professional milliner, is employed at Mrs. Willet's studio.

A full attendance of the Board of Health and the Board of Public Works was present, beside a number of citizens.

The matter of compulsory sewer connections was freely discussed, but no definite conclusion was reached as to what the Board of Health should do.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.

Several complaints were received last night by the Board from citizens who declared that places in their neighborhood were in an unsanitary condition, and appealed to the Board to have the nuisances abated.

The Board of Health is also making arrangements to have the meat markets and bakeries inspected, after the fair.