TROLLEY SMASH UP

Accident Near Somerville That Cost Lives of Two New Brunswick Men Being Investigated by Somerset Authorities—Inquest on To-day.

Motorman Charles Frech, of Bound Brook, is still at Somerville Hospital, where he is likely to remain for a couple of weeks, following the trolley accident on Tuesday. He has a broken wrist and general contusions about the body.

Officials of the company declared today that it has always been a hard and fast rule that the eastbound car is to wait at the first switch on the west-bound trolley and when Motorman Zierer tried to make the other switch he was going directly against the rules.

Motorman Frech, who is at the hospital in Somerville, as well as Andrew Bogdan, his conductor, declare that they reached the switch on time and turned the light at the signal box according to rules. There is still a possibility that Conductor Stryker accidentally turned the light against him and threw the other one in to hold the west-bound car at the other switch, but this the company says, he should not have done according to the rules.

FIRST WORK OF BAD HOODOO

The first victim of the Friday 13th hoodoo to-day in New Brunswick was hackman Frank Clark, who was driving a fare through George street in one of Birch's hacks about 8:30. When the horse got near Church street, the hoodoo suddenly obsessed it and it bolted towards Paterson.

The man inside determined to resist the fates he was up against and opened the door and rolled out into the street. He had his fingers crossed, which saved him from serious injury.

Clark steered his horse into a telegraph pole in front of Van Deuren's pharmacy and escaped with a couple of broken shafts.

FREEMAN FIGHTS ASSESSMENTS

METUCHEN, Nov. 12.—Once more Dr. C. M. Freeman, who became famous by becoming the husband of Mary E. Wilkins, and who added to his fame by getting mixed up in that Metuchen crap game, has jumped into the limelight. Once again he has entered a fight.

This time it is not politics, or craps, or an effort to fire the police force. It is simply a move to protect himself. The Freemans own a fine new home on Lake avenue, which, when it was built a couple of years ago, was supposed to have cost in the neighborhood of $15,000.

The Freeman mansion was erected on a fine tract of land comprising about three acres. Much had been written and said of the exquisite home, so when Tax Assessor Van Sicken came along he put what he considered a low valuation on the property. The valuation went out recently "the doctor" sat up and took notice when his arrival.

Monday formal notice was served upon Borough Attorney Siler to the effect that said Freeman would fight the assessment. This means that Freeman and the Middlesex County Board of Equalization of Taxes will have it out in the near future.

The Borough Council, by unanimous vote, decided to sustain Assessor Van Sicken, and passed a resolution instructing Borough Attorney Siler to oppose any reduction in the assessment.

CHILDREN'S HOME
SIS DINE NEED

Institution on 31st Birthday Found to Be in Poor Shape Financially—Homeless Tots Turned Away Because of Lack of Accommodation.

With appropriate exercises in which a large number of the inmates of the home participated, the thirty-first anniversary of the founding of the Children's Industrial Home, on Somerset street, was observed at the First M. E. Church last evening.

The report of the secretary, Miss Harriet Potter, showed the institution to be in a deplorable state of financial need. For while 45 children have been cared for during the year, nearly as many have been turned away because of lack of accommodation. The report says that the home has not escaped the ever-increasing demand for organized charity and because of the rapid growth of the city it is found utterly impossible to provide for all the needy children.

The report thankfully acknowledges the acts of charity by local people and organizations that have made possible the continuance of the work and have brightened the lives of the tots committed to the care of the managers.

It states that the St. Peter's Hospital has taken in three of the girls suffering from congenital dislocation of the hip, for which the Lorenz method of treatment is being applied, while Dr. J. Warren Rice is treating another for lameness caused by tuberculosis of the bone.

JUDGE FAILED TO APPEAR

Judge Edward S. Atwater, County Judge of Warren County was expected here this morning to sit in Judge Booram's place for the purpose of hearing pleas to indictments.

Prosecutor Berline was on hand prepared to present indictments against reporters and spectators waiting patiently until after eleven o'clock. The time had been fixed for 10:30, so as no word was received from Judge Atwater, Court Crier Hayes announced that court would adjourn for one week.

ANNUAL BANQUET OF RARITAN LODGE

Scores of Ladies Grace the Board of Ancient Order of United Workmen When 27th Anniversary is Observed.

With an exceptionally large number of the gentler sex to enjoy the evening with them, members of Raritan Lodge, No. 6, Ancient Order of United Workmen, partook of a sumptuous banquet served at Graham & McCormick's Hall, Church street, last evening. Officers were laid for 150 guests and following the excellent repast provided a well-arranged and wondrous evening of rare enjoyment.

The occasion of the banquet was the twenty-seventh anniversary of the institution of a lodge of the order, Raritan Lodge having been founded here in 1881. Professor Peter Austin, of Rutgers College, was the organizer and during the evening a graceful tribute to his memory was paid by Samuel C. Gowen, financier of the lodge.

The proceedings opened shortly after the hour set, 8 o'clock. Mr. Gowen, who was chairman of the committee of arrangements, presiding. After welcoming the guests in behalf of the lodge, he introduced Rev. Fred C. Uhl, pastor of St. James M. E. Church, who said grace.

Mr. Gowen then briefly reviewed the history of the lodge and congratulated the older members on their presence. He spoke of the strides the order has made in this city during 27 years and of the pleasant future of having ladies with them on the occasion of the anniversary of Raritan Lodge.

Referring to those who have laid down their tools and those to their reward, Mr. Gowen mentioned the death of John

7 FROM HERE SEEK PARDONS

Bochinos, Who Tried to Escape From Reformatory, Longo and Skimmons, Convicted of Homicide, and Other Notable Prisoners Seek Release.

Notice has been posted by Charles A. Ransom, clerk of the Court of Pardons, that petitions for pardons had been received from seven prisoners convicted from this county and now in State prison. The petitions will be heard at the December term of the court.

Petitions filed are in behalf of: George Bochino, convicted in December, 1906, of assault with intent to kill, and serving a nine year sentence. Michael Bochino, same as above. Mortimer Diabrow, convicted January, 1906, of assault and batter, now serving a two year sentence. Joseph Longo, convicted of murder in April, 1905, and now serving a ten year sentence. Walter Miller, convicted of assault and battery in April, 1907, and now serving a three year sentence. John Skimmons, convicted July, 1906, of burglary and now serving a four year sentence. John Skimmons, convicted July, 1903, of manslaughter and serving a ten year sentence.

The Bochinos were brothers serving a term at the Rahway Reformatory, and nearly killed a guard trying to escape. They were tried here and convicted of atrocious assault.

Diabrow was sent to Trenton after repeatedly escaping punishment for aiding his wife, who got her husband off from punishment for several years.

Longo was convicted of a homicide at Perth Amboy. Skimmons was convicted of killing his father-in-law at South Amboy.

Miller was a local colored man. He was twice tried for attacks upon women, the first time being acquitted and the second time convicted upon an assault charge.

Reardon belonged to a gang of "boy highwaymen" who terrorized the New Market vicinity for a time. He tried to get out of the blame upon a confederate, but failed.

MARKED BALLOTS IN THE THIRD?

Republicans Claim to Have Discovered a Uniform System of Erasing Name of Democratic Candidate There Who Had No Opposition.

Beware! Look out for a holocaust or a stamped, for to-day is not only Friday, and the 13th, but the globe is in the constellation Gemini. By Jimmy, it is! Gemini may sound foolish to the novice in astrology, but here is how it happened.

Jupiter and his ninth wife Leda were beset with a pair of twins, named Castor and Pollux. These young men shared immortality alternately, being and dying every six months, and were transformed into the group of stars which is now called by wise men Gemini.

Now whenever Friday falls on the 13th of the month one or other of the twins die. Wow, wow, such a day!

Hide in cellars or caves, no one can find you. Eat nothing; it may be poisoned. Drink no water; it may have a small fish in it. Sign no contracts. Start no lawsuits. Duck, and keep ducked all this fearful day, which is today may be in a pickle all its life. Ain't it terrible, Tessie?

Look out for the step!

When the recount of the New Brunswick vote comes on next month, one of the chief contentions of the Republican contestants will be that there were marked Democratic ballots cast in the Third Ward.

It is alleged that about 40 votes came out there with a line of exact uniformity drawn through the name of Joseph Hayer, candidate for Justice of the Peace. As Judge Hayer had no opposition the cutting made no difference to him. It is claimed however, that the character of the line indicates that the same hand marked each of the ballots. A strong argument will be made to Justice Bergen urging that all of these votes be cast out, as plainly indicating that a designating mark was made.

If they are thrown out, it will come very near electing Theodore W. Lott as Alderman-at-Large. There are enough other contested ballots, the Republicans claim, which if counted or discarded at the contestant say they should be made Mr. Whitlow Alderman-at-Large and possibly to make Charles Morris, Recorder.

Justice Bergen will be called upon to rule upon all the ballots, and both sides are wondering what stand he will take. Experience in this regard in this State in the past has shown a decided lack of uniformity in the holdings of Supreme Court Justices who ruled upon them. For instance Justice Swayze at Fall held that a ballot on which "John Fort" was voted for Governor, was admissible, though it could not be counted for John Franklin Fort. The State Board of Canvassers held otherwise, and other Justices have held the same view.

If the apparently elected Democrats are counted out in the recount, Justice Bergen will revoke their certificates of election and the Republicans will take their places. If the Democrats they should fight any further, they will have to take legal proceedings to oust the Republicans.

WORK OF HIS OWN HANDS KILLS HIM

GEORGE MEYERS, WHO WAS FATAL-
LY HURT IN SOMERVILLE TROL-
LEY CRASH, HELPED INSTALL SIG-NAL SYSTEM ON THAT LINE.

To be killed by the work of his own hands was the fate of George W. Meyers of 25 Washington street, this city, who received injuries in the Somerville trolley crash from which he died last Wednesday.

Meyers was one of the oldest line-men in the State and enjoyed the reputation of being an exceptionally efficient worker. Until a short time ago he was employed by the Public Service Corporation and when the signal system that safeguards trolleys passing over the stretch of single track at Finders was installed, Meyers assisted in working out the system and superintended its installation.

It is claimed that it was through no fault of the signal system that the accident, which snuffed out two lives, occurred, but that the fact of both conductors flashing the signal at exactly the same instant was responsible for the wreck.

The death of Geo. Meyers was a surprise to the doctors. Meyers, when admitted to the hospital, was believed to be so slightly injured that his name was not even placed on the list of the hurt by the hospital physicians.

Later he showed signs of internal injuries. He was placed in bed by a nurse, who left his bedside for a few minutes, and on returning found the patient dead. An autopsy was made on Mr. Meyers' body Wednesday night by County Physician William H. Long, and the result will be made known at the coroner's inquest, which Dr. Long directed to be held.

METUCHEN HAS TWO MAYORS

R. H. Wilson Takes Oath of Office and Thinks He is Now Mayor. But Dr. Ellis Hasn't Gotten Off the Job.

METUCHEN, Nov. 13.—Richard H. Wilson, chairman of the Republican County Committee, elected mayor of Metuchen by the largest vote ever given any candidate on any ticket in the borough, took the oath of office before Borough Clerk, Howard S. Wilson, yesterday.

According to the opinion of many A. L. Ellis is no longer mayor, but all the right, title and power is now vested in Mayor Richard H. Wilson. It is argued by some that Mayor Wilson should immediately enter upon the duties of the office to which he has been elected and Mayor Wilson will probably do so, in fact he must do so if the law so directs.

It will be remembered that last year

SUES TO RECOVER $90,000

John W. Herbert Holds Oakleigh Thorne Responsible for a Heavy Loss in a Stock Transaction.

(Special Despatch to the Home News.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—A sensational suit is on here before Judge Newburger in the Supreme Court, with John W. Herbert, formerly of Helmsville, Middlesex county, plaintiff in a suit to recover about $90,000 on a stock transaction.

The defendant is Oakleigh Thorne, president of the Trust Company of America. Mr. Herbert bought several years ago a large block of stock in the International Fire Engine Co., acting upon representations made to him by Mr. Thorne. It is alleged.

The stock dwindled in value and Mr. Herbert is suing to recover his investment. His loss is approximately $90,000. John D. Archbold, of the Standard Oil Company, was another large purchaser of the International stock.

Eminent counsel are appearing on both sides. Martin Littleton is for the defense and Mr. Littlefield, of Nelson Cromwell's law firm, is counsel for Mr. Herbert. The trial which is before a jury, will last several days.

WILL SHUT UP
MILLTOWN TIGHT

The Milltown Borough Council last night passed resolutions directing that stores in the borough be closed all day Sunday. The only exception is that barbers may shave their customers up to noon on the Sabbath.

It was declared at the meeting, however, that some of the barbers have been having pool games in their places on Sunday. The action of the council speaks heavily orders that this be ceased. As it stands now nothing but a shave can be purchased in Milltown on the Sabbath.

The council also considered the matter of having marshals patrol Milltown day and night, and to this end appointed two new marshals—John Neidlinger and Henry Dupress.

Borough Council Frederick Weigel rendered an opinion concerning the Mayor's vacancy caused by the death of Joseph Crabiel. He held that the borough council has a right to fill such vacancy. A special meeting of the council will be held next week to select a Mayor. The present acting Mayor is Spencer Perry, president of council.

A number of bills were ordered paid last night. All the members were present.

GOV. FORT'S PROCLAMATION

(Special Despatch to the Home News.)
TRENTON, Nov. 13.—Governor Fort to-day issued the following Thanksgiving proclamation:

"The honor of being a citizen of the great Republic would of itself be a sufficient cause for annually setting apart in accordance with custom, a day for thanksgiving and prayer. But the people of New Jersey have much else to be thankful for.

Their church relations, their free schools, the good roads, their unique situation, their clean State government, their picturesque hills, their unequalled sea coast, their efficient municipal governments, their vast mining manufacturing and industrial interests, and their high average intelligence, all give cause for unbounded gratitude to the giver of all good.

Besides all this our fields have been fertile, our homes happy, our transportation facilities satisfactory, the wages of labor fair, and price of products of our farms, of the output of our factories remunerative.

When to all this is added a splendid civic spirit which is abroad in our public life, we can indeed be grateful for the Providence overruling it all.

On every account our lot may be said to be cast in pleasant places.

Therefore, I, John Franklin Fort, Governor of the State of New Jersey, do designate Thursday, the twenty-sixth day of November instant, as a day to be observed for general thanksgiving and prayer and upon that day I recommend that all business cease and that the people gather in their respective churches and other places for public worship or in their homes in private to make fitting acknowledgments to Almighty God of His unbounded benefactions to us as Nation, State and individuals. Given under my hand and seal at the executive chamber in the city of Trenton this thirtieth day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and eight and the Independence of the United States the one hundred and thirty-third.

JOHN FRANKLIN FORT.

HAMB, Westphalia, Nov. 13.—In desperate hopes that some of the three hundred or more miners in the Rabod mine might have survived the explosion and flames of the wrecked mine, the grief-stricken relatives of the victims to-day made a desperate effort to prevent the engineers from flooding the mine.

Lady begged the mine officials, to make one more attempt to rescue, when their demands were denied by those in charge.

A column of troops were finally drawn around the mine entrance and water was turned down the shaft. The total death toll will run into three hundred. Forty dead have already been taken out. Of forty injured taken out ten will die. No attempt has been made yet to fix the responsibility for the disaster. The whole town is in mourning.
