ATTACK MADE UPON JOHN SANCHEZ NEAR MILLTOWN CHURCH

MAKE GETAWAY WITHOUT CASH

Three unmasked bandits held up John Sanchez, aged forty-two years, of 1364 Ohio avenue, Trenton, in front of Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church in Milltown, at 10:15 o'clock last night while he was on his way to board a Trenton street line trolley for his home but before the bandits were able to carry out the robbery, they were frightened by the cries of a young victim, Sanchez was unmercifully beaten by the bandits who then fled and when he was found by young Milltown men, his face was badly battered up.

SWEEPED TO SEA OFF RUM ROW

(By the Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Five men said to be members of a rum-running crew, were swept to sea before the fifty-six miles gale that swept over the city and coast, and were rescued by the coast guard cutter Seminole after they had spent the night on the freezing seas in an open boat. Two of the quintet were said to be William Trainor of Atlantic Highlands, N. J., and Jacob Elin, Navesink, N. J. The names of the three companions were not known.

GOLD SNAP SEEKEST FOR NOV. 17

Thermometer Lowest on This Date for the Past Fifty Years
RAIN AND WARMER WEATHER TUESDAY

Old Boreas got busy yesterday afternoon and as a result there is a pronounced hiatus in the remarkably fine fall weather which we have been enjoying for several weeks. With the wintry wind came a sharp drop in the temperature, and New Brunswick woke up this morning to find outside water pipes frozen and the cream six degrees and sticks from the bottles of milk left by the milkmen.

EFFORT BEING MADE TO SAVE THE VAIL HOUSE

A movement was set on foot this morning to save the Vail house for the city as an historic relic of the days of the revolution. It is the last landmark of this sort in New Brunswick and the plan is to have it moved to the tract of land occupied by the Free Public Library where it will be open to the public as a museum.

300 GUNNERS SUPPLIED WITH LICENSES SUNDAY

Several hundred local hunters helped to swell an estimated army of 50,000 gunners who were in the fields of New Jersey today in search of wild game. Today is the opening of the hunting season in New Jersey, the ban having been lifted at midnight last night following a conference of Governor Silzer and representatives of the Fish and Game Commission last Saturday.

REPORTER SLASHED BY NEGRO

Was Among Attendants At Equity Ball in New York City
A RESIDENT OF METUCHEN

As several hundred actors, actresses and other guests were leaving the Equity Ball in the Hotel Astor, New York City, early yesterday morning Basil Gallagher of 48 Rose street, Metuchen, was slashed by a razor, just as he stepped out of the hotel by a West Indian negro, who fled through Forty-fourth street into Sixth avenue, pursued by an indignant crowd of men and women, who were shouting "Get a razor" and "Lynch him!"

FOUND ABANDONED HORSE AND BUGGY

NEW MARKET, Nov. 17.—Chief Elmer Barrett of New Market found a sorrel horse and buggy abandoned on the Washington avenue bridge Saturday night while patrolling that section. A search was made for the owner of the outfit, and being unsuccessful, Chief Barrett turned it over to Albert Nelson, poundkeeper of Piscataway township.

MAN'S BODY FOUND NEAR SOMERVILLE

Manville Employee Probably Killed by Passing Automobile
CAUSE OF DEATH NOT DETERMINED

SOMERVILLE, Nov. 17.—The body of a man, believed to be that of John Doleka, was found in a lane leading to Epp's lumber yards off the Manville road shortly before 7 o'clock this morning. Little information was available this morning but Prosecutor A. M. Beckman announced this noon he thought that the man had been killed by a passing automobile, probably on the main road.
