the Borough.

SOUTH RIVER, Aug. 31.—A crowd of seven frisky young sports with caps pulled down over one eye, pulled the borough late yesterday afternoon and proceeded to make their presence known by insults to ladies on the street, and singing. They ran and hid young fellows, however, before they went another half a mile to the former combat took place and the local boys dealt out their blows with great accuracy. After the smoke of battle had cleared away, the ground was strewn with two dead dogs, where they saw the boys from Trenton. The boys had lost their hilarity and were arrested by the police. Van Norden and awaited their turn with extreme timidity. The judge sentenced them to ten days in the county jail or a fine of $5 for each dog and $10 for the other. The boys who would pay the fine, but did not, were taken to the county jail. The judge sentenced them to ten days in the county jail or a fine of $5 for each dog and $10 for the other. Polish Turners Ready to Fight.
The local members of the Polish Turners held a meeting yesterday afternoon and discussed the possibility of sending a team to Europe and the cause of the war. A number went to New York on Sunday and made preparations to go. A home will go unless it is really necessary, at which time the entire company will leave together.

Birthday Party.
Little Miss Evelyn Armstrong gave a birthday party yesterday to a number of her little boy and girl friends in honor of her seventh birthday. The party was held at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. W. Armstrong, and was a very successful one. A number of presents were given and the party was a very enjoyable one.

John Shimick Passes Away.
John Shimick, proprietor of a large grocery store and meat market on Third Street, passed away at his home Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock, after a lingering illness. He was a well-known and respected citizen and was survived by a wife and four children. Funeral will be held from his late home this afternoon at 2:30. Interment will be made in the Russian cemetery. Undertaker has charge of the funeral arrangements.

Body of Patrick Kennedy, of this city, who met death when he walked into the dock into the water at South River, was sent to the home of his mother, Mrs. Green, of Trenton, Saturday afternoon. The internment will be in that city.

Mr. Kennedy, who was 60 years of age, had been a resident of the borough for many years, and was highly respected by all who knew him. He was a well-known and respected citizen and was survived by a wife and four children.

MILLTOWN, Aug. 31.—About 450 bushels of unthreshed wheat and rye contained in seven stacks piled in the field near the barn of Jacob Ross at Dunham's Corner were completely destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon, and only for a prompt response to a telephone call by Eureka Fire Company, No. 1, of Milltown, the Ross barn would also have been consumed by the flames.

The fire, it is believed, originated through mischievous youngsters whose names were not disclosed. The fire started about 4 o'clock and it was not very long before it was beyond control of the owners. Then word was sent to the home of C. W. Waddington, of Milltown, who, together with Mayor William Kuhlthau, soon rounded up a number of fire fighters, and in about eight minutes from the time they left Milltown the apparatus was at the scene of the conflagration. The Milltown firemen could do nothing to save the grain, but they did save the barn, which was but twelve feet away from the nearest stack that was burning. The roof of the barn caught fire in one instance, but it was soon extinguished by the use of chemicals.

Among the local firemen to make the trip were Mayor William Kuhlthau, Jr., C. W. Waddington, Winfield Fine, Voorhees Van Arsdale, Charles Wolff, Edward Emmons, John Christ, John Hoelzer, Myron Fouratt, Second Assistant Foreman Martin Mueller also made the trip.

After the fire was extinguished the firemen were treated royally by the Ross family.

Very delightful party was held at the home of Miss Jessie Lyle, of Van Liew avenue, on Saturday evening in honor of Miss Lillian Downey's birthday. Miss Catherine Snedeker was a prize winner in one of the interesting question games. Musical selections were rendered and singing was indulged in. Tasty delicacies were served.

New Brunswick Baker Fined.
G. Swidersky, a baker, of New Brunswick, was arrested Saturday afternoon for peddling without a license. Constable Rupprecht brought him before Justice Headley, who fined him $5 and costs. The horse and wagon was held by the constable until the owner went to New Brunswick for money to pay the court claims. Swidersky was driving a galloping horse and the Justice warned him not to bring the animal to Milltown again until it was healed up and fit for use.

Constable Rupprecht also arrested John Kislow on a peace warrant and brought him before Justice Headley, where B. Kashmer claimed that Kislow called him abusive names and then pitched in to fight him. Kashmer asked Kislow for a little money that was due him and Kislow resented it in a fight. Kislow signed the peace bond and agreed to pay Kashmer's bill when he received his pay.

Constable Rupprecht was called to look after another fight on Riva avenue. Two young Italians from New Brunswick had a scuffle on a trolley, and when they alighted at Riva avenue wound up in a free fight. The officer caught one fellow, but the other made good his escape. No charge was made, but the fellow lost his coat in the scrap.

Lively Time at Parsons' Grove.
From reports that were circulated about the borough yesterday war must have been declared in Parsons' Grove on Saturday night, and if the reports are true there were four or five fist fights between the male picnickers and some quarrels, too, if not hair-pulling matches, among certain feminine picnickers. It seems about time that some of our good citizens who are members of the organization that has charge of the renting of this resort would speak up for the right and either try to preserve strict order or do away with the regular Saturday night picnics altogether.

Birthday Party for Miss Downey.
A very delightful party was held at the home of Miss Jessie Lyle, of Van Liew avenue, on Saturday evening in honor of Miss Lillian Downey's birthday. The New Fabrics and Styles.

In Women's Autumn Apparel the several shades of Broadcloth lead in popularity, though Serge, Wool Velour, Poplin, Gabordine and wide wale fabrics will also be favored by some. Navy Blue, Brown, Plum, Green, Taupe and Black promise to be the prevailing shades.

New Fall Suits appear with long tailored coats, blouse coats and Redingote styles, as well as short and melium coats, with the choice of postilion, pleated or ripple back. The skirts are pleated tunic, box pleated, yoke, flare, and straight line models.

We are showing for immediate wear some very beautiful models in Suits of Velvet, Broadtail, Peau-de-Soie and Gloveskin at prices of $15.00, $20.00, $25.00 and upwards.

Afternoon Dresses.

Chiffon Crepe, Crepe Meteor, Velvet, Broadcloth, Satin, Nets and combination effects, styled effectively after approved fashions. They are priced $15.00 and upwards.

Serge Dresses and Separate Skirts.

Tailored Dresses of Serge, and Serge combined with Silk—real practical dresses for general wear. Shown in variety at prices from $5.00, $10.00 and $15.00 upwards. Separate Skirts, smartly tailored and developed in Gabordine, Broadcloth, Fancy Cords, Wool Poplin and Satin.

IN MEN'S WEAR FOR FALL.

Tartans and Glenurquaharts, although shown among the heavy weight suitings a year ago, will, on account of the continued demand for them, still remain in vogue.

Pleasing blends of green and plain cloths in beautiful solid shades promise to win much favor; and a great number of new designs in browns as beautiful as ever seen, are strongly in evidence.

Spring Weight Top Coats.

In the conservative silk lined CHESTERFIELD—light and dark Oxford or plain black. Loose kimona sleeve, unlined coats of light weight fancy fabrics.

Form fitting coats of knitted materials in gray shades and heather mixtures.

EYE STRAIN IS NERVE STRAIN

Eye Strain serves to drag down and impoverish the entire nerve system of the body. Hence it is vital that you look to your eyes. You may safely entrust your eyes to me. Will give you a thorough scientific examination, meaning Ophthalmoscopic and Retinoscopic Diagnosis, and not the old subjective test of asking you what you can see.

I will prescribe for you what I know to be scientifically right. Can give you references from doctors, ministers, and many of the most reliable and prominent people of New Brunswick and vicinity.

Good Glasses as low as $1.00. Am making special low price on Torica, Opifex, Bifocals and Rx. work especially.
